LEGAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME 2012

Introduction

Applications are invited, from students who have successfully completed the first year of Law School, to the Legal Internship Programme of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court. The programme is intended to provide another avenue by which students of Law Schools may pursue their internship attachment with the Court for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of their institution. It is envisaged that this programme will assist students to acquire experience in, and knowledge of, the practical workings of the Court process, and of the Court in its role as the primary organ for the Administration of Justice in the Eastern Caribbean.

The Programme

During a period of internship, an intern will be required to perform any or all of the following duties:

- ◆ Conduct research for the writing of judgments and rulings as directed by the Honourable Chief Justice and the Justices of Appeal.
- ◆ Write legal opinions on issues as directed by the Honourable Chief Justice and the Justices of Appeal.
- ◆ Participate in the administrative functions of the Court, by performing proofreading, editing and similar functions, and attending meetings whenever necessary.
- ◆ Attend sitting of the Court of Appeal.

- ◆ Assist the Chief Registrar of the Court in the performance of her duties

Selection Criteria

The internship programme is intended to benefit two [2] students over the given summer period. The programme is open to students who are registered in a full time course of study at all accredited Law Schools. Applicants will be short-listed for interview at a time and place to be determined by the Court.

Duration and Stipend

The internship will be for a period of ten [10] weeks from Monday, 11th June to Friday, 17th August 2012. The intern will be paid a monthly stipend of Three thousand five hundred dollars [$3,500.00] Eastern Caribbean Currency. Remuneration for the period of any part of a month worked will be calculated pro rata and the intern paid accordingly.

Applications

An application for the internship programme must be in writing. It must contain the names of two [2] references, as well as a current curriculum vitae of the applicant. Applications should be addressed to:
