

ADDRESS

BY THE CHIEF JUSTICE

OF

THE EASTERN CARIBBEAN SUPREME COURT

THE HON. SIR DENNIS BYRON

TO MARK

THE OPENING OF THE LAW YEAR 2002/2003

CHARLESTOWN, NEVIS

Protocol List

!

had a glorious history .Over a century ago, the government

During the

Deployment -Optimal Use of Resources

The number of High Court judges was

Court Office Efficiency and Computerization

We have begun to reap some of the benefits of having a computerized case management software package which you may recall was referred to in my address at the opening of the law year last year. In an effort to use the software for obtaining as much information as possible we have embarked

The Way Forward

Mediation

The stage is now set for the introduction of mediation in the court process during this law year. A

Legal Aid

Legal Aid is an important adjunct to Access to justice. Moves are already in place to introduce. Both L.2 wnmments and the Bar

