 - (ii) to which the proposed ancillary defendant is already a party but also in some further capacity; and

Effect of service of ancillary claim form

18.11 (1) A person on whom an ancillary claim form (other than a counterclaim) is served becomes a party to the proceedings if that person is not already a party.

(2) When an ancillary claim form is served on an existing party for the purpose of requiring the court to decide a question against that party in a further capacity, that party also becomes a party in the further capacity specified in the notice.

(2) The claimant does so by filing at the court office an amended claim form and statement of claim, and Parts 5 (service of claim within jurisdiction), 7 (service of court process out of jurisdiction), 9 (acknowledgment of service and notice of intention to defend), 10 (defence) and 12 (default judgments) apply to the amended claim form as they do to a claim form.

- Part 18 deals with counterclaims and the adding of additional parties by a defendant.

 - (a) all parties to the proceedings;
 - (b) any party added or substituted; and
 - (c) any other person affected by the order.

consider whether to give consequential directions about –

- (b) serving relevant documents on the new party; and
- (c) the management of the proceedings; and subject to such directions, rule 19.2(2) applies.

(3) When considering an application to amend a statement of case pursuant to Rule 20.1(2), the factors to which the court must have regard are –

- (6) If the party wishing to obtain judgment is the claimant and the claim is for some other remedy, the judgment must be such as the court considers that the claimant is entitled to.
- (7) If the party wishing to obtain judgment is a defendant, judgment must be for assessed costs.
- (8) If a decision of the court is necessary in order to decide the terms of the judgment, the party making the request must apply for directions.

- Part 65 deals with the quantification of costs.

Setting aside judgment entered after striking out

26.6(1) A party against whom the court has entered judgment under rule 26.5 when the right to enter judgment had not arisen may apply to the court to set it aside.

(2) If the right to enter judgment had not arisen at the time when judgment was entered, the court must set aside judgment.

(3) If the application to set aside is made for any other reason, rule 26.8 (relief from sanctions) applies.

Court's powers in cases of failure to comply with rules, etc.

26.7 (1) If the court makes an order or gives directions, the court must whenever practicable also specify the consequences of failure to comply.

(2) If a party has failed to comply with any of these rules, a direction or any order, any sanction for non-compliance imposed by the rule, direction or the order has effect unless the party in default applies for and obtains relief from the sanction, and rule 26.9 does not apply.

(3) If a rule, practice direction or order –

(a) requires a party to do something by a specified date; and

(b) specifies the consequences of failure to comply;

the time for doing the act in question may not be extended by agreement between the parties.

Procedural default costs

(4) In circumstances where –

- (a) a pre-trial memorandum or a bundle is not filed in accordance with Rule 39.1(5);
- (b) a core bundle is not filed in accordance with Rule 62.12(4); or
- (c) a legal practitioner fails to comply with a provision of these Rules, a court order, a practice direction or a practice guide, and, as a result of that default, a party has incurred costs or a hearing has to be vacated, then the court may on its own initiative order the practitioner responsible to pay to any party and or to the court an amount of money which does not exceed the sum or sums specified by the relevant practice direction.

- (5) Any sum paid under an order made under Rule 26.7(4) may be payable in addition to any sum which the court may order a practitioner to pay by way of wasted costs under Rule 64.8 or pay under Rule 64.10.

Relief from sanctions

26.8 (1) An application for relief from any sanction imposed for a failure to comply with any rule, order or direction must be –

- (a) made promptly; and
- (b) supported by evidence on affidavit.

(2) The court may grant relief only if it is satisfied that –

- (a) the failure to comply was not intentional;
- (b) there is a good explanation for the failure; and
- (c) the party in default has generally complied with all other relevant rules, practice directions, orders and directions.

(3) In considering whether to grant relief, the court must have regard to –

- (a) the effect which the granting of relief or not would have on each party;
- (b) the interests of the administration of justice;
- (c) whether the failure to comply has been or can be remedied within a reasonable time;
- (d) whether the failure to comply was due to the party or the party's legal practitioner; and
- (e) whether the trial date or any likely trial date can still be met if relief is granted.

- (4) The court may not order the respondent to pay the applicant's costs in relation to any application for relief unless exceptional circumstances are shown.

General power of court to rectify matters where there has been a procedural error

26.9 (1) This rule applies only where the consequence of failure to comply with a rule, practice direction, court order or direction has not been specified by any rule, practice direction or court order.

- (2) An error of procedure or failure to comply with a rule, practice direction, court order or direction does not invalidate any step taken in the proceedings, unless the court so orders.

- (3) If there has been an error of procedure or failure to comply with a rule, practice direction, court order or direction, the court may make an order to put matters right.

- (4) The court may make such an order on or without an application by a party.

Scope of this Part

27.1 This Part deals with the procedures by which the court will manage cases.

Fixed date claims – first hearing

27.2 (1) When a fixed date claim is issued the court must fix a date for the first hearing of the claim.

(2) On that hearing, in addition to any other powers that the court may have, the court shall have all the powers of a case management conference.

(3) The court may, however, treat the first hearing as the trial of the claim if it is not defended or it considers that the claim can be dealt with summarily.

(4)The general rule is that the court must give at least 14 days notice of any first hearing.

(5)The general rule is subject to any rule or statutory provision which specifies a different period.

(6)The court may on or without an application direct that shorter notice be given –

(a) if the parties agree; or

(b) in urgent cases.

(7)Unless the defendant files an acknowledgement of service the claimant must file evidence on affidavit of service of the claim form and the relevant documents specified in rule 5.2(3) at least 7 days before the first hearing.

Case management conference

27.3 (1) The general rule is that the court office must fix a case management conference immediately upon the filing of a defence to a claim other than a fixed date claim.

(2)If the defendant files a defence and also an admission of a specified sum of money, the case management conference is not to be fixed until the claimant gives notice under rule 14.7(3) that the claim is to continue.

(3)The case management conference must take place not less than 4 weeks nor more than 8 weeks after the defence is filed (or notice is given under rule 14.7(3)) unless any rule or practice direction prescribes a shorter or longer period or the case is urgent.

(4)Notwithstanding paragraph (3) a party may apply to the court to fix a case management conference before a defence is filed.

(5)The application may be without notice but must state the reasons for the application.

(6)The court office must give all parties not less than 14 days notice of the date, time and place of the case management conference.

- (7) The court may with or without an application direct that shorter notice be given –
- (a) if the parties agree; or
 - (b) in urgent cases.

Attendance at case management conference or pre-trial review

27.4 (1) If a party is represented by a legal practitioner, that legal practitioner or another legal practitioner who is authorised to negotiate on behalf of the client and competent to deal with the case must attend the case management conference and any pre-trial review.

(2) The general rule is that the party or a person who is in a position to represent the interests of the party (other than the legal practitioner) must attend the case management conference or pre-trial review.

(3) The court may dispense with the attendance of a party or representative (other than a legal practitioner).

(4) If the case management conference or pre-trial review is not attended by the legal practitioner and the party or a representative, the court may adjourn the case management conference or pre-trial review to a fixed date and may exercise any of its powers under Part 26 (case management – the court’s powers) or Part 64 (costs – general).

Orders to be made at case management conference

27.5 (1) The general rule is that at a case management conference the court must consider whether to give directions for –

- (a) service of experts’ reports (if any);
- (b) service of witness statements; and
- (c) standard disclosure and inspection;

by dates fixed by the court.

- (2) The court may also give directions for the preparation of an agreed statement –
- (a) as to any relevant specialist area of law;
 - (b) of facts;
 - (c) of issues; and
 - (d) of the basic technical, scientific or medical matters in issue;
- which statement does not bind the trial judge.
- (3) The court must fix a date for a pre-trial review unless it is satisfied that having regard to the value, importance and complexity of the case it may be dealt with justly without a pre-trial review.
- (4) The court must in any event fix the –
- (a) date on which a listing questionnaire is to be sent by the court office to the parties; and
 - (b) period within which the trial is to commence; or
 - (c) trial date.
- (5) The court office must serve an order containing the directions made on all parties and give notice of the –
- (a) date of any pre-trial review;
 - (b) date on which the listing questionnaire is to be sent out by the court office; and
 - (c) trial date or trial period.

Dispensing with case management conference in simple or urgent proceedings

- 27.6 (1) The court may, of its own volition or on the application of a party, make an order dispensing with a case management conference if it is satisfied that the –
- (a) case can be dealt with justly without a case management conference;

- (b) case should be dealt with as a matter of urgency; or
- (c) cost of a case management conference is disproportionate to the value of the proceedings or the benefits that might be achieved from a case management conference.

(2) If the court dispenses with a case management conference, it must at the same time –

- (a) fix a trial date or the period within which the trial is to take place;
- (b) give directions in writing about the preparation of the case; and
- (c) set a timetable for the steps to be taken before the date of trial.

(3) If the court dispenses with a case management conference, it may

- (a) dispense with a listing questionnaire under rule 27.9;
- (b) dispense with all or any of the requirements relating to the preparation and filing of bundles of documents under rule 39.1;
- (c) dispense with a pre-trial review under Part 38; and
- (d) give any other direction that will assist in the speedy and just trial of the claim, including any direction that might be given under Part 38.

Adjournment of case management conference

27.7 (1) The court may not adjourn a case management conference without fixing a new date, time and place for the adjourned case management conference.

(2) If the court is satisfied that the parties are –

- (a) attending, or have arranged to attend, a form of ADR procedure;

or

- (b) in the process of negotiating, or are likely to negotiate a settlement;

the court may adjourn the case management conference to a suitable date, time and place to enable negotiations or the ADR procedure to continue.

- (3) If the case management conference is adjourned under paragraph (2) each party must notify the court office promptly if the claim is settled.
- (4) The court may give directions as to the preparation of the case for trial if the case management conference is adjourned.
- (5) So far as practicable any adjourned case management conference and procedural application made prior to a pre-trial review must be heard and determined by the judge, master or registrar who conducted the first case management conference.

Variation of case management timetable

27.8 (1) A party must apply to the court if that party wishes to vary a date which the court has fixed for –

- (a) a case management conference;
- (b) a party to do something where the order specifies the consequences of failure to comply;
- (c) a pre-trial review;
- (d) the return of a listing questionnaire; or
- (e) the trial date or trial period.

(2) Any date set by the court or these rules for doing any act may not be varied by the parties if the variation would make it necessary to vary any of the dates mentioned in paragraph (1).

(3) A party seeking to vary any other date in the timetable without the agreement of the other parties must apply to the court, and the general rule is that the party must do so before that date.

- Rule 42.7 deals with consent orders.

(4) A party who applies after that date must apply for –

- (a) an extension of time; and

(b) relief from any sanction to which the party has become subject under these Rules or any court order.

- Rule 26.8 provides for applications for relief from sanctions.

(5) The parties may agree to vary a date in the timetable other than one mentioned in paragraph (1) or (2).

(6) Where the parties so agree, they must –

(a) file a consent application for an order to that effect; and

(b) certify on that application that the variation agreed will not affect the date fixed for the trial or, if no date has been fixed, the period in which the trial is to commence; and the timetable is accordingly varied unless the court directs otherwise.

Listing questionnaire

27.9 (1) The court office must send the parties a listing questionnaire in Form 10 on the date fixed under rule 27.5(4) (a).

(2) Each party must file the completed listing questionnaire at the court office within the period of 21 days after the date on which it is served on that party.

(3) If –

(a) a party fails to –

(i) give all the information requested by the listing questionnaire; or

(ii) return the completed questionnaire to the court office within the period of 21 days;

or

(b) the court considers that a hearing is necessary to enable it to decide what directions to give in order to complete the preparation of the case;

the court office may fix a listing appointment and direct any or all of the parties to attend the listing hearing.

- (4) The court office must give all parties at least 7 days notice of the date, time and place of the listing hearing.
- (5) Any party at fault must attend the listing hearing.
- (6) At the listing hearing the court must –
- (a) give any directions which may be needed to complete the preparation of the case for trial without any adjournment of the trial; and
 - (b) if the listing appointment has been fixed under paragraph (3) (a) – make a wasted costs order unless there is a special reason why it should not make such an order.
- (7) Apart from the requirement to complete a listing questionnaire the court may at any time require the parties to answer a questionnaire to assist it in the management of the case.

Fixing trial date

- 27.10 (1) As soon as practicable after –
- (a) each party has returned a completed listing questionnaire to the court office; or
 - (b) the court has held a listing hearing under rule 27.9(3);
- the court office must fix the date of the trial (or, if it has already done so, confirm that date) and notify the parties.
- (2) The general rule is that the court office must give the parties at least 8 weeks' notice of the date of the trial.

- (3) The court may however give shorter notice –
- (a) if the parties agree; or
 - (b) in urgent cases.

28.18

Scope of this Part

28.1 (1) This Part sets out rules about the disclosure and inspection of documents.

(2) In this Part –

“copy”, in relation to a document, means anything onto which information recorded in the document has been copied, by whatever means and whether directly or indirectly; and “document” means anything on or in which information of any description is recorded.

(3) A party “discloses” a document by revealing that the document exists or has existed.

(4) For the purposes of this Part a document is “directly relevant” if –

- (a) the party with control of the document intends to rely on it;
- (b) it tends to adversely affect that party’s case; or
- (c) it tends to support another party’s case; but the rule of law known as “the rule in Peruvian Guano” does not apply.

Duty of disclosure limited to documents which are or have been in party’s control

28.2 (1) A party’s duty to disclose documents is limited to documents which are or have been in the control of that party.

- (2) For this purpose a party has or has had control of a document if –
- (a) it is or was in the physical possession of the party;
 - (b) the party has or has had a right to inspect or take copies of it; or
 - (c) the party has or has had a right to possession of it.

Disclosure of copies

28.3 (1) Except where required by paragraph (2), a party need not disclose more than one copy of a document.

- (2) A party must however disclose a copy if it contains a modification, obliteration or other marking or feature which is not present in the original or any copy of the document which is being disclosed.

Standard disclosure

28.4 If a party is required by any direction of the court to give standard disclosure, that party must disclose all documents which are directly relevant to the matters in question in the proceedings.

Specific disclosure

28.5 (1) An order for specific disclosure is an order that a party must do one or more of the following things –

- (a) disclose documents or classes of documents specified in the order;
- (b) carry out a search for documents to the extent stated in the order;
- (c) disclose any document located as a result of that search.

- (2) An order for specific disclosure may be made on or without an application.

- (3) An application for specific disclosure may be made without notice at a case management conference.
- (4) An application for specific disclosure may identify documents –
 - (a) by describing the class to which they belong; or
 - (b) in any other manner.
- (5) An order for specific disclosure may require disclosure only of documents which are directly relevant to one or more matters in issue in the proceedings.

Criteria for ordering specific disclosure

- 28.6 (1) When deciding whether to make an order for specific disclosure, the court must consider whether specific disclosure is necessary in order to dispose fairly of the claim or to save costs.
- (2) The court must have regard to –
 - (a) the likely benefits of specific disclosure;
 - (b) the likely cost of specific disclosure; and
 - (c) whether it is satisfied that the financial resources of the party against whom the order would be made are likely to be sufficient to enable that party to comply with any such order.
 - (3) If, having regard to paragraph (2) (c), the court would otherwise refuse to make an order for specific disclosure, it may nonetheless make such an order on terms that the party seeking the order must pay the other party's costs of such disclosure in any event.
 - (4) If the court makes an order under paragraph (3), it must assess the costs to be paid in accordance with rule 65.12.
 - (5) The party in whose favour such order for costs was made may apply to vary the amount of costs so assessed.

Procedure for disclosure

28.7 (1) Paragraphs (2) to (5) set out the procedure for disclosure.

(2) Each party must make, and serve on every other party, a list of documents in Form 11.

(3) The list must identify the documents or categories of documents in a convenient order and manner and as concisely as possible.

(4) The list must state –

(a) what documents are no longer in the party's control;

(b) what has happened to those documents; and

(c) where each such document then is, to the best of the party's knowledge, information or belief.

(5) The list must include documents already disclosed.

(6) A list of documents served by a company, firm, association or other organisation must –

(a) state the name and position of the person responsible for identifying individuals who might be aware of any document which should be disclosed; and

(b) identify those individuals who have been asked whether they are aware of any such documents and state the position of those individuals.

Duty of legal practitioner

28.8 The legal practitioner for a party must –

(a) explain to the maker of the list of documents the –

(i) necessity of making full disclosure in accordance with the terms of the order for disclosure and these Rules; and

(ii) possible consequences of failing to do so; and

(b) certify on the list of documents under rule 28.7(2) that the explanation required by subparagraph (a) has been given.

Requirement for maker to certify understanding of duty of disclosure

28.9 (1) The maker of the list of documents must certify in the list of documents that –

(a) the maker understands the duty of disclosure; and

(b) to the best of the knowledge of the maker the duty has been carried out.

(2) In the case of a list served on behalf of a company, firm, association or other organisation the certificate referred to in paragraph (1) must be made by the person identified in rule 28.7(6) (a).

(3) If it is impracticable for the maker of the list of documents to sign the certificate required by paragraph (1), it may be given by that person's legal practitioner.

(4) A certificate given by the legal practitioner must also certify –

(a) that the certificate is given on the instructions of the maker; and

(b) the reasons why it is impractical for the maker of the list of documents to give the certificate.

Disclosure in stages

28.10 The parties may agree in writing or the court may direct that disclosure or inspection or both may take place in stages.

Inspection and copying of listed documents

28.11(1) When a party has served a list of documents on any other party, that party has a right to inspect any document on the list, except documents –

(a) for which a right to withhold from disclosure is claimed; or

(b) which are no longer in the physical possession of the party who served the list.

(2) The party wishing to inspect the documents must give the party who served the list written notice of the wish to inspect documents in the list.

- (3) The party who is to give inspection must permit inspection not more than 7 days after the date on which the notice is received.
- (4) If the party giving the notice undertakes to pay the reasonable cost of copying, the party who served the list must supply the other with a copy of each document requested not more than 7 days after the date on which the notice was received.

Duty of disclosure continuous during proceedings

28.12 (1) The duty of disclosure in accordance with any order for standard or specific disclosure continues until the proceedings are concluded

(2) If documents to which that duty extends come to a party's notice at any time during the proceedings, that party must immediately notify every other party and serve a supplemental list of those documents.

(3) The supplemental list must be served not more than 14 days after the documents to which that duty extends have come to the notice of the party required to serve it.

Consequence of failure to disclose documents under order for disclosure

28.13 (1) A party who fails to give disclosure by the date ordered, or to permit inspection, may not rely on or produce at the trial any document not so disclosed or made available for inspection.

(2) A party seeking to enforce an order for disclosure may apply to the court for an order that the other party's statement of case or some part of it be struck out.

(3) An application under paragraph (2) relating to an order for specific disclosure may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit that the other party has not complied with the order.

(4) On an application under paragraph (2) the court may order that unless the party in default complies with the order for disclosure by a specific date that party's statement of case or some part of it be struck out.

- Rule 11.16 deals with applications to set aside order made on application without notice.

- Rule 26.5 deals with judgment without trial after striking out.

- Rule 26.8 deals with relief from sanctions.

Claim of right to withhold disclosure or inspection of document

28.14 (1) A person who claims a right to withhold disclosure or inspection of a document or part of a document must –

(a) make such claim for the document; and

(b) state the grounds on which such a right is claimed;

in the list or otherwise in writing to the person wishing to inspect the document.

(2) A person may however apply to the court, without notice, for an order permitting that person not to disclose the existence of a document on the ground that disclosure of the existence of the document would damage the public interest.

(3) A person who applies under paragraph (2) must –

(a) identify the document, documents or parts thereof for which a right to withhold disclosure is claimed; and

(b) give evidence on affidavit showing –

(i) that the applicant has a right or duty to withhold disclosure;

and

(ii) the grounds on which the right on duty is claimed.

(4) Unless the court orders otherwise, an order of the court under paragraph (2) is not to be

(a) open for inspection by; nor

(b) served on;

any person.

(5) person who does not agree with a claim of right to withhold inspection or disclosure of a document may apply to the court for an order that the document be disclosed or made available for inspection.

(6) On hearing such an application the court must make an order that the document be disclosed unless it is satisfied that there is a right to withhold disclosure.

(7) If a person –

(a) applies for an order permitting that person not to disclose the existence of a document or part of a document; or

(b) claims a right to withhold inspection;

the court may require the person to produce that document to the court to enable it to decide whether the claim is justified.

(8) On considering any application under this rule, the court may invite any person to make representations on the question of whether the document ought to be withheld.

Restrictions on use of a privileged document inspection of which has been inadvertently allowed

28.15 If a party inadvertently allows a privileged document to be inspected, the party who has inspected it may use it only with the –

(a) agreement of the party disclosing the document; or

(b) permission of the court.

Documents referred to in statements of case, etc.

28.16 (1) A party may inspect and copy a document mentioned in –

(a) an affidavit;

(b) an expert's report;

(c) a statement of case;

- (d) a witness statement or summary; or
- (e) the claim form.

(2) A party who wishes to inspect and copy such a document must give written notice to the party who, or whose witness, mentioned the document.

(3) The party to whom the notice is given must comply with the notice not more than 7 days after the date on which the notice is served.

Subsequent use of disclosed documents

28.17 (1) A party to whom a document has been disclosed may use the document only for the purpose of the proceedings in which it is disclosed, unless –

- (a) the document has been read to or by the court, or referred to, in open court; or
- (b) (i) the party disclosing the document and the person to whom the document belongs;

or

- (ii) the court;
- gives permission.

(2) The court may make an order restricting or prohibiting the use of a document which has been disclosed, even where the document has been read to or by the court, or referred to in open court.

(3) An application for such an order may be made by any –

- (a) party; or
- (b) person to whom the document belongs.

Notice to prove document

28.18 (1) A party shall be deemed to admit the authenticity of any document disclosed to that party under this Part unless that party serves notice that the documents must be proved at trial.

(2) A notice to prove a document must be served not less than 42 days before the trial.

- (4) The examiner must ensure that a full record is taken of the evidence given by the witness.
- (5) If any person being examined objects to answer any question put to him or her, the ground of the objection and the answer to any such question must be set out in the deposition or in a statement annexed to the deposition.
- (6) The examiner must send the original deposition to the court office and a copy of the deposition to—
- (a) every party to the proceedings; and
 - (b) the deponent.

 - (c) serve a copy of it on all other parties.

Evidence without examiner being present

33.9 (1) With the consent of the parties, the court may order that the evidence of a witness be taken as if before an examiner, but without an examiner being appointed or present.

- (a) fails to attend;
- (b) refuses to answer any lawful question or produce any document at the examination; or
- (c) refuses to be sworn or to affirm for the purpose of the examination; the party requiring the deposition may file a certificate signed by the examiner of such failure or refusal.

(2) On the certificate being filed, the party requiring the deposition may apply to the court for an order requiring the person to attend, to be sworn, to affirm or to answer any question or produce any document, as the case may be.

- (3) An application for an order under this rule may be made without notice.
 - (4) Any order made by the court must be served personally on the person served with the witness summons and be endorsed with a notice in the first form given in rule 53.3(b).
 - (5) The court may order the person against whom an order is made under this rule to pay any costs resulting from the –
 - (a) failure to attend before a referee;

- (a) absence of any person; or
 - (b) conduct of any person present;
- when the deposition was taken.

Fees and expenses of examiner

- 33.12(1) On appointing an examiner the court must fix the fee to be paid to the examiner for carrying out the examination.
- (2) If an examination is carried out by a person other than a legal practitioner, the fee must be paid into the court office.
 - (3) The party who obtained the order must also pay the fee and all reasonable travelling and other expenses including charges for a room (other than the examiner's own chambers or office) where the examination takes place.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) and (3), the court may ultimately order any party to bear the costs of the examination.

Order for payment of examiner's fees

33.13(1) The examiner may report to the court the fact that any fees or expenses due to him or her have not been paid and the court may make an order that the party who obtained the order for the examination should pay such fees and expenses.

(2) An order under paragraph (1) may be enforced as a money judgment.

Use of deposition at hearing

33.14(1) A deposition ordered under rule 33.7 or 33.9 may be given in evidence at the trial unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) A party intending to put in evidence a deposition at a hearing must serve notice of such intention on every other party at least 21 days before the day fixed for the hearing.

(3) The court may require a deponent to attend the hearing and give oral evidence.

Where person to be examined is out of the jurisdiction – letter of request 33.15(1) If a party wishes to take a deposition from a party outside the jurisdiction, the court may direct the issue of a letter of request to the judicial authorities of the country in which the proposed deponent is.

(2) A letter of request is a request to a judicial authority to take the evidence of that person, or arrange for it to be taken.

- (3) If the government of the country to which the letter is sent allows a person appointed by the court to examine a person in that country, the court may make an order appointing an examiner for that purpose.
- (4) A person may be examined under this rule on oath or affirmation or in accordance with any procedure permitted in the country in which the examination is to take place.

- (6) There is no need to file a translation if English is one of the official languages of the country where the examination is to take place.

Early appointment to produce documents

33.16(1) The court may permit a party to issue a witness summons requiring any person to attend at a date, time or place specified in the summons prior to the date of the trial for the purpose of producing one or more documents.

- (2) The only type of document that a summons under this rule can require a person to produce is a document which that person could be compelled to produce at the trial.

Scope of this Part

35.1 (1) This Part contains Rules about –

- (a) offers to settle which a party may make to another party; and
- (b) the consequences of such offers.

(2) This Part does not limit a party’s right to make an offer to settle otherwise than in accordance with this Part.

(3) The Rules in this Part are subject to rule 23.12 (compromise, etc. on behalf of a minor or patient).

- Part 36 deals with payments into court.

Introductory

35.2 (1) An offer to settle may be made in any proceedings whether or not there is a claim for money.

(2) The party who makes the offer is called the “offeror”.

(3) The party to whom the offer is made is called the “offeree”.

(4) An offer to settle is made when it is served on the offeree.

Making offer to settle

35.3 (1) A party may make an offer to another party which is expressed to be “without prejudice” and in which the offeror reserves the right to make the terms of the offer known to the court after judgment is given with regard to –

- (a) the allocation of the costs of the proceedings; and
- (b) (in the case of an offer by the claimant) the question of interest on damages.

(2) The offer may relate to the whole of the proceedings or to part of them or to any issue that arises in them.

Time when offer to settle may be made

35.4 A party may make an offer to settle under this Part at any time before the beginning of the trial.

Procedure for making offer to settle

35.5 (1) An offer to settle must be in writing.

- (2) The offeror must serve the offer on the offeree and a copy on all other parties.
- (3) Neither the fact nor the amount of the offer or any payment into court in support of the offer must be communicated to the court before all questions of liability and the amount of money to be awarded (other than costs and interest) have been decided.
- (4) Paragraph (3) does not apply to an offer which has been accepted or where a defence of tender before claim has been pleaded.

Extent to which offer to settle covers interest, costs or counterclaim

35.6 (1) An offer to settle a claim for damages must state whether or not the amount offered includes interest or costs.

- (2) If the offer covers interest or costs it must state the amount which is included for each.
- (3) If there is a counterclaim as well as a claim, the offer must state in the case of an offer by the –
 - (a) claimant – whether or not it takes into account the counterclaim; or
 - (b) defendant – whether or not it takes into account the claim;and in each case in what amount.

Offer to settle made after interim payment

35.7 If an interim payment has been made, whether voluntarily or under an order under Part 17, any subsequent offer to settle must state whether it is in addition to the interim payment or whether it is intended to replace it.

Offer to settle part of claim

35.8 (1) An offer to settle must state whether or not it covers the whole or part of the claim.

(2) If it does not state that it covers part of the claim, it is to be taken to cover the whole claim.

(3) If the offer covers only part or parts of the claim it must –

(a) identify the part or parts of the claim in respect of which it is made;

and

(b) if more than one, state what is offered in respect of each part covered by the offer.

Time limit for accepting offer to settle

35.9 (1) The offeror may state in the offer that it is open for acceptance until a specified date.

(2) The offer shall have no effect on any decision that the court makes as to the consequences of the offer unless it is open for acceptance for at least 21 days.

(3) Acceptance of the offer after the beginning of the trial shall have no effect on any decision that the court makes as to the consequences of such acceptance.

(4) The court may permit an offeree to accept an offer after the specified date on such terms as the court considers just.

Procedure for acceptance

35.10(1) To accept an offer a party must –

(a) serve written notice of acceptance on the offeror; and

(b) send a copy of the notice to any other party.

(2) The offeree accepts the offer when notice of acceptance is served on the offeror.

(3) If an offer or payment into court under Part 36 is made in proceedings to which rule 23.12 applies –

- (a) the offer or payment may be accepted only with the permission of the court; and
- (b) no payment out of any sum paid into court may be made without a court order.

•Rule 23.12 deals with compromises, etc. by or on behalf of a minor or patient.

Effect of acceptance – generally

35.11(1) If the offeree accepts an offer which is not limited in accordance with rule 35.8, the claim is stayed upon the terms of the offer.

(2) If the offer covers a claim and a counterclaim, both the claim and the counterclaim are stayed on the terms of the offer.

(3) In any other case, the proceedings are stayed to the extent that they are covered by the terms of the offer.

(4) If the court's approval is required for the settlement of the proceedings, any stay arising on the acceptance of the offer has effect only when the court gives its approval.

•Rule 23.12 deals with the settlement of proceedings involving minors and patients.

(5) A stay arising on the acceptance of an offer does not affect proceedings to deal with any question of costs relating to the proceedings which have been stayed and which have not been dealt with by the offer.

(6) If money has been paid into court in support of an offer, a stay arising out of the acceptance of the offer does not affect any proceedings to obtain payment out of court.

•Part 36 deals with payments into court.

(7) If an offer is accepted and its terms are not complied with, any stay arising on acceptance ceases to have effect and –

- (a) the proceedings or the part which was stayed may continue; and
- (b) either party may apply to the court to enforce those terms.

- (8) If a party claims damages for breach of contract arising from an alleged failure of another party to carry out the terms of an agreed offer, that party may do so by applying to the court without the need to commence new proceedings unless the court orders otherwise.

Effect of acceptance – more than two parties

35.12(1) If there is more than one defendant whom the claimant claims are jointly and severally, or severally, liable and the claimant –

- (a) agrees to settle the claim as against one or more, but not all of them; and
- (b) discontinues the claim against any other defendant;

the claimant is liable to pay the costs of that defendant unless the court otherwise orders.

•Part 37 deals with discontinuance.

(2) If a claimant accepts an offer made by one of a number of joint defendants –

- (a) paragraph (1) does not apply; and
- (b) the defendant who made the offer is liable for the costs of the other joint defendants.

(3) If–

- (a) there is more than one claimant and
 - (b) one or more, but not all, of them agree to settle;
- the other claimants may continue the proceedings.

Costs of offeror and offeree where offer is accepted – defendant's offer

35.13(1) If the –

- (a) defendant makes an offer to settle; and
- (b) claimant accepts the offer within any period stated for accepting it and before the beginning of the trial;
the claimant is entitled to the costs of the proceedings up to the date of acceptance of the offer.

(2) If the defendant permits a claimant to accept an offer after the time stated for accepting it, the general rule is that the –

- (a) claimant is entitled to costs to the end of the period stated for accepting the offer; and
 - (b) defendant is entitled to any costs incurred between the end of the period stated for accepting the offer and the date when the offeree accepts the offer; unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3) If the settlement relates only to part of the proceedings and the remaining part or parts of the proceedings continue –
- (a) the claimant is entitled under this rule only to the costs relating to that part of the proceedings which has been settled; and
 - (b) unless the court orders otherwise or the defendant agrees, the claimant may not recover any such costs, nor have them quantified, until the conclusion of the rest of the proceedings, when the court can deal with the costs of the whole of the proceedings including any costs relating to those parts of the proceedings that were not settled.

Costs of offeror and offeree where offer is accepted – claimant’s offer

35.14 If the claimant makes an offer which is accepted by the defendant, the claimant is entitled to costs up to the time when notice of acceptance of the offer is served.

Costs where offer not accepted – general rules

- 35.15(1) The general rule for defendants’ offers is that, if the defendant makes an offer to settle which is not accepted and in –
- (a) the case of an offer to settle a claim for damages – the court awards less than 85% of the amount of the defendant’s offer;
 - (b) any other case – the court considers that the claimant acted unreasonably in not accepting the defendant’s offer;
- the claimant must pay any costs incurred by the defendant after the latest date on which the offer could have been accepted without the court’s permission.
- (2) If a claimant makes an offer to settle and in –
- (a) the case of an offer to settle a claim for damages – the court awards an amount which is equal to or more than the amount of the offer;
 - (b) any other case – the court considers that the defendant acted unreasonably in not accepting the claimant's offer;

the court may, in exercising its discretion as to interest take into account the rates set out in the following table:

Net amount of damages	Rate of interest
not exceeding EC$ 100,000	15% per annum
for the next EC$150,000	12% per annum
for the next EC$500,000	10% per annum
in excess of EC$ 800,000	8% per annum where 'net' means the amount of damages on the claim less the amount (if any) awarded on any counterclaim.

(Example

One year since the offer. Damages – EC$400,000;

The court might award –

15% on the first $100,000 for one year ($15,000);

plus 12% interest on the next $150,000 for one year ($18,000);

plus 10% interest on the remaining $150,000 for one year ($15,000);

a total of EC$48,000 interest on damages.)

(3) The court may decide that the general rule under paragraph (1) is not to apply in a particular case.

(4) In deciding whether the general rule should not apply and in considering the exercise of its discretion under paragraph (2), the court may take into account the –

(a) conduct of the offeror and the offeree with regard to giving or refusing information for the purposes of enabling the offer to be made or evaluated;

(b) information available to the offeror and the offeree at the time that the offer was made;

(c) stage in the proceedings at which the offer was made; and

(d) terms of any offer.

(5) This rule applies to offers to settle at any time, including before proceedings were started.

How costs are to be dealt with 35.16(1) If an offer to settle is accepted, the parties may agree the amount of costs that are due to be paid under this Part.

(2) If the amount of costs falls to be quantified by the court, then the general rule is that, unless an order has been made for budgeted costs under rule 65.8, the costs are to be determined in accordance with the scale of prescribed costs contained in Part 65, Appendices B and C.

(3) If an offer to settle –

(a) is accepted after the time originally stated for accepting it under rule 35.10 (2); or

(b) deals only with part of the case in accordance with rule 35.13 (3); the amount of costs to be paid to the party entitled to such costs must be assessed by the court and in assessing the costs the court must take into account the scale of prescribed costs or the amount of the budgeted costs as the case may be.

(4) In determining the appropriate amount of costs to be paid where an order has been made under rule 65.8 (budgeted costs), the court may take into account any written information provided by either party when the costs budget was made.

37.1 (1) The Rules in this Part set out the procedure by which a claimant may discontinue all or any part of a claim.

(2) A claimant who –

- (a) claims more than one remedy; and
- (b) subsequently abandons a claim to one or more remedies but continues with the claim for the other remedies; is not treated as discontinuing part of a claim for the purposes of this Part.

- Rule 42.7 deals with consent orders which may include orders bringing a claim to an end by way of a consent judgment or otherwise,

Right to discontinue claim

37.2 (1) The general rule is that a claimant may discontinue all or part of a claim without the permission of the court.

(2) However –

- (a) a claimant needs permission from the court to discontinue all or part of a claim in relation to which –
 - (i) any party has given an undertaking to the court; or
 - (ii) the court has granted an interim injunction;
 - (b) a claimant who has received an interim payment in relation to a claim (whether voluntarily or pursuant to an order under Part 17) may discontinue only if the –
 - (i) court gives permission; or
 - (ii) defendant who made the payment consents in writing;
 - (c) if there is more than one claimant, a claimant may not discontinue unless –
 - (i) every other claimant consents in writing; or
 - (ii) the court gives permission.
- (3) If there is more than one defendant the claimant may discontinue all or part of the claim against all or any of the defendants.

Procedure for discontinuing

- (a) serve a notice of discontinuance on every other party to the claim;
 - and
 - (b) file a copy of it.
- (2) The claimant must certify on the filed copy that notice of discontinuance has been served on every other party to the claim.
- (3) If the claimant needs the consent of some other party, a copy of the necessary consent must be attached to the filed copy of the notice of discontinuance.
- (4) If the claimant needs permission from the court, the notice of discontinuance must contain details of the order by which the court gave permission.

- (5) If there is more than one defendant, the notice of discontinuance must specify against which defendant or defendants the claim is discontinued.

Right to apply to have notice of discontinuance set aside

37.4 (1) If the claimant discontinues without the consent of the defendant or the permission of the court, any defendant who has not consented may apply to have the notice of discontinuance set aside.

- (2) A defendant may not apply under this rule more than 28 days after the date when the notice of discontinuance was served on that defendant.

Effect of discontinuance

37.5 (1) Discontinuance against any defendant takes effect on the date when the notice of discontinuance is served on that defendant under rule 37.3 (1) (a).

- (2) A claim or the relevant part of a claim is brought to an end as against that defendant on that date.

(3) However, this does not affect –

- (a) any proceedings relating to costs; or
- (b) the right of the defendant under rule 37.4 to apply to have the notice of discontinuance set aside.

Liability for costs

37.6 (1) Unless the –

- (a) parties agree; or

- (b) court orders otherwise;

Circumstances in which court may make order for attachment of debts

50.2 (1) The attachment of debts procedure may not be used if the order is to pay money into court.

- (2) An attachment of debts order can be made only against a garnishee who is within the jurisdiction.

- (3) An attachment of debts order may not be made to attach debts due from the Crown.

•Rule 59.7(3) provides an alternative procedure in this situation.

- (4) A debt may be attached if it –

(a) is due or accruing to the judgment debtor from the garnishee on the date that the provisional order under rule 50.3 is served on the garnishee; or

(b) becomes due or accrues due to the judgment debtor at any time between the service of the provisional order under rule 50.3 and the date of the hearing.

Procedure – making of provisional order

50.3 (1) An application by a judgment creditor for an attachment of debts order must be in the appropriate practice form.

(2) The application may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit.

- (3) If the court considers that on the evidence submitted the judgment creditor is entitled to an attachment of debts order, it must make a provisional order.

(4) The court must do this without a hearing.

(5) The court office must state in the provisional order the date, time and place of the hearing.

Money in bank accounts, etc.

50.4 (1) An attachment of debts order may be made in respect of any type of debt but includes money standing to the credit of any account of the judgment debtor with a bank or other financial institution.

(2) An attachment of debts order must not require a payment that would reduce below EC$50 the amount standing in the name of a judgment debtor in an account with a bank or other financial institution.

Joint funds

50.5 (1) This rule applies where an application is made to attach a fund which is owned jointly by the judgment debtor and another person or persons.

personally on the garnishee unless the garnishee is a body corporate.

(3) If the garnishee is a bank or other financial institution, the provisional attachment of debts order must be served at its principal or registered office and also the branch at which the judgment debtor's account is kept, if that address is known to the judgment creditor.

(4) Secondly, the order must be served on the judgment debtor.

- (5) It must be served on the judgment debtor at least 7 days after it has been served on the garnishee and not less than 7 days before the hearing.

Effect of provisional order

50.9 (1) This rule sets out the effect of a provisional attachment of debts order.

- (2) The order becomes binding on the garnishee as soon as it is served on the garnishee.
- (3) The garnishee does not then have to pay the judgment creditor anything except to the extent that the garnishee's debt to the judgment debtor is greater than the amount of the attachment of debts order.
- (4) However, if the garnishee pays anyone but the judgment creditor the garnishee may have to make further payment to the judgment creditor in accordance with the terms of any final attachment of debts order that the court may make.

Hearing to consider making final order

- (a) garnishee; and
 - (b) judgment debtor.
- (6) A notice under this rule must contain a warning to every person on whom it is served that, if that person does not attend court, the court may proceed to decide the issue in that person's absence.

Enforcement against garnishee

50.12 If a garnishee does not fulfill the terms of an attachment of debts order, the judgment creditor may issue enforcement proceedings against the garnishee.

Discharge of garnishee's debt to judgment debtor

- 50.13(1) This rule has effect where–
- (a) an attachment of debts order is enforced against the garnishee; or
 - (b) the garnishee pays money to the judgment creditor in compliance with an attachment of debts order.
- (2) The garnishee's liability to the judgment debtor is then discharged to the extent of the amount paid by, or recovered from the garnishee.
- (3) This rule has effect even if the court later sets aside the attachment of debts order or the original judgment or order.

Costs of attachment of debts proceedings

Money in court

50.15(1) An attachment of debts order may not be made in respect of money in court standing to the credit of the judgment debtor.

- (2) The judgment creditor may however apply for an order that a sufficient amount of the money in court to satisfy the judgment and the fixed costs of the application be paid to the judgment creditor.
- (3) Notice of the application must be given to the proper officer and any person who has an interest in the fund.
- (4) Until hearing of the application the money to which it relates must not be paid out of court.
 - Part 65, Appendix A sets out the fixed costs.

(b) cause substantial hardship to or substantially prejudice the rights of any person.

Proceedings by way of claim which should be application for administrative order

56.6 (1) This rule applies where a claimant issues a claim for damages or other relief other than an administrative order but where the facts supporting the claim are such that the only or main relief is an administrative order.

- (2) The court may at any stage direct that the claim is to proceed by way of an application for an administrative order.
- (3) If the appropriate administrative order would be for judicial review, the court may give leave for the matter to proceed as if an application had been made under rule 56.3.
- (4) If the court makes an order under paragraph (2), it must give such directions as are necessary to enable the claim to proceed under this Part.

How to make application for administrative order

- 56.7 (1) An application for an administrative order must be made by a fixed date claim in Form 2 identifying whether the application is for
- (a) a declaration;
 - (b) judicial review;

- (d) the grounds on which such relief is sought;
 - (e) the facts on which the claim is based;
 - (f) the claimant's address for service; and
 - (g) the names and addresses of all defendants to the claim.
- (5) The general rule is that the affidavit must be made by the claimant or, if the claimant is not an individual, by an appropriate officer of the body making the claim.
- (6) If the claimant is unable to make the affidavit it may be made by some person on the claimant's behalf but must state why the claimant is unable to do so.
- (7) On issuing the claim form the court office must fix a date for a first hearing which must be endorsed on the claim form.
- (8) The general rule is that the first hearing must take place no later than 4 weeks after the date of issue of the claim.

- (10) The application may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit.

Joinder of claims for other relief

- (2) In particular the court may, on a claim for judicial review or for relief under the Constitution award –
- (a) damages;

 - (ii) facts set out in the claimant’s affidavit or statement of case justify the granting of such remedy or relief; and
 - (iii) court is satisfied that, at the time when the application was made the claimant could have issued a claim for such remedy.
- (3) The court may however at any stage –
- (a) direct that any claim for other relief be dealt with separately from the claim for an administrative order; or
 - (b) direct that the whole application be dealt with as a claim and give appropriate directions under Parts 26 and 27; and
 - (c) in either case, make any order it considers just as to costs that have been wasted because of the unreasonable use of the procedure under this Part.

Service of claim form for administrative order

- (d) if any defendant has not been served, states that fact and the reason for not doing so.

(5) If the judge considers that any person who should have been served has not been served, the judge may adjourn the first hearing to a fixed date and give directions for service.

- Part 5 deals generally with the service of claims.

Evidence in answer

56.10 Any evidence filed in answer to a claim for an administrative order must be by affidavit but the provisions of Part 10 (defence) apply to such affidavit.

First hearing

56.11 (1) At the first hearing the judge must give any directions that may be required to ensure the expeditious and just trial of the claim and the provisions of Parts 25 to 27 of these Rules apply.

(2) In particular the judge may –

- (a) allow any person or body appearing to have sufficient interest in the subject matter of the claim to be heard whether or not served with the claim form;

(2) Such a person or body must make submissions by way of a written brief unless the judge orders otherwise.

(3) The judge may grant any relief that appears to be justified by the facts proved before the judge, whether or not such relief should have been sought by an application for an administrative order.

(4) The judge may, however, make such orders as to costs as appear to the judge to be just including a wasted costs order.

- (5) If the judge makes any order as to costs the judge must assess them.
- Rules 65.11 and 65.12 deal with the assessment of costs.
- (6) The general rule is that no order for costs may be made against an applicant for an administrative order unless the court considers that the applicant has acted unreasonably in making the application or in the conduct of the application.
- Part 64 deals with the court's general discretion as to the award of costs.

Special provisions relating to orders for judicial review

56.14(1) If the claimant seeks an order or writ of certiorari to remove any proceedings for the purpose of quashing them, the claimant may not question the validity of any order, warrant, commitment, conviction or record unless –

- (5) If directions are given that a listing questionnaire be sent to all parties, rules 27.9 and 27.10 apply as if the references to the trial were references to the hearing of the appeal.
- (6) If the management of an appeal has been referred to a single judge of the court under paragraph (2) that judge must wherever practicable be a member of the court hearing the appeal.

to give security for the costs of the appeal.

(2) An application for security may not be made unless the applicant has made a prior written request for such security.

(3) In deciding whether to order a party to give security for the costs of the appeal, the court must consider –

(a) the likely ability of that party to pay the costs of the appeal if ordered to do so; and

(b) whether in all the circumstances it is just to make the order.

(4) On making an order for security for costs the court must order that the appeal be dismissed with costs if the security is not provided in the amount, in the manner and by the time ordered.

- (2) For the purpose of complying with this rule the appellant must cause to be omitted from the copies of the documents lodged by the appellant every part which states, or refers to the fact, that money was paid into court or an offer to settle was made in the proceedings in that court before judgment.
- (3) This rule does not apply to an appeal relating only to costs.

(2) If one or more but not all parties appear, the court may proceed in the absence of the parties who do not appear if satisfied that the party who does not appear has received notice of the hearing in accordance with these Rules.

Application to set aside decision made in party's absence

62.22 (1) A party who was not present at an appeal at which a decision was made or where an appeal was struck out may apply to set aside that order.

(3) Any party served in accordance with this Rule shall be precluded from laying claim to any costs incurred by him after such service unless the court shall otherwise order.

(4) Notwithstanding the appeal stands dismissed, the appellant shall be liable for the costs incurred by the respondent.

Liability for costs on withdrawal or discontinuance

62.26 (1) Unless the –

- (a) parties agree; or
- (b) court orders otherwise;

an appellant who discontinues is liable for the costs incurred by the respondent against whom the claim is discontinued, on or before the date on which notice of discontinuance was served.

(2) If an appeal is only partly discontinued –

- (a) the appellant is only liable for the costs relating to that part of the appeal which is discontinued; and
- (b) unless the court orders otherwise, the costs which the appellant is liable to pay are not to be quantified until the conclusion of the rest of the appeal.

Quantification of costs on withdrawal or discontinuance

62.27 (1) The general rule is that, unless an order has been made for budgeted costs under Rule 65.8, the costs are to be determined in accordance with the scale of prescribed costs contained in Part 65, Appendices B and C.

(2) If the appellant discontinues part of the appeal only, the amount of costs must be assessed by the court when the remainder of the appeal is resolved.

(3) In determining the appropriate amount of costs to be paid where an order has been made under Rule 65.8 (budgeted costs), the court may take into account any written information provided by either party when the costs budget was made.

Costs where there is an appeal

64.4 The court hearing an appeal may make orders about the costs of the proceedings giving rise to the appeal as well as the costs of the appeal.

Entitlement to recover costs

64.5 A person may not recover the costs of proceedings from any other party or person except by virtue of –

(a) an agreement between the parties;

(b) an order of the court; or

(c) a provision of these Rules.

Successful party generally entitled to costs

64.6 (1) Where the court, including the Court of Appeal, decides to make an order about the costs of any proceedings, the general rule is that it must order the unsuccessful party to pay the costs of the successful party.

(2) The court may however order a successful party to pay all or part of the costs of an unsuccessful party or may make no order as to costs.

(3) This rule gives the court power in particular to order a person to pay –

Scope of this Part

65.1 This Part deals with the way in which any costs awarded by the court are quantified.

Basis of quantification

65.2 (1) If the court has a discretion as to the amount of costs to be allowed to a party, the sum to be allowed is –

- (a) the amount that the court deems to be reasonable were the work to be carried out by a legal practitioner of reasonable competence;
and
 - (b) which appears to the court to be fair both to the person paying and the person receiving such costs.
- (2) If the court has a discretion as to the amount of costs to be paid to a legal practitioner by his or her client the sum allowed is –
- (a) the amount that the court deems to be reasonable; and
 - (b) which appears to be fair both to the legal practitioner and the client.
- (3) In deciding what would be reasonable the court must take into account all the circumstances, including –
- (a) any order that has already been made;
 - (b) the care, speed and economy with which the case was prepared;
 - (c) the conduct of the parties before as well as during the proceedings;
 - (d) the degree of responsibility accepted by the legal practitioner;
 - (e) the importance of the matter to the parties;
 - (f) the novelty, weight and complexity of the case;
 - (g) the time reasonably spent on the case; and
 - (h) in the case of costs charged by a legal practitioner to his or her client –
 - (i) any agreement about what grade of legal practitioner should carry out the work;
 - (ii) any agreement that may have been made as to the basis of charging; and
 - (iii) whether the legal practitioner advised the client and took the client’s instructions before taking any unusual step or one which was unusually expensive having regard to the nature of the case.

Ways in which costs are to be quantified

65.3 Costs of proceedings under these Rules are to be quantified as follows –

- (a) where rule 65.4 applies – in accordance with the provisions of that rule; and
- (b) in all other cases if, having regard to rule 64.6, the court orders a party to pay all or any part of the costs of another party – in one of the following ways –

- (i) costs determined in accordance with rule 65.5 (“prescribed costs”);
- (ii) costs in accordance with a budget approved by the court under rule 65.8 (“budgeted costs”); or
- (iii) (if neither prescribed nor budgeted costs are applicable), by assessment in accordance with rules 65.11 and 65.12.

Fixed costs

65.4 (1) A party is entitled to the costs set out in column 3 of Appendix A to this Part in the circumstances set out in column 2 of that Appendix.

(2) The court may however direct that some other amount of costs be allowed for the work covered by any item in Part 2 of Appendix A.

(3) If it does so, the court must assess such costs.

- Rule 65.11 and 65.12 deals with the assessment of costs.

Prescribed costs

65.5 (1) The general rule is that where rule 65.4 does not apply and a party is entitled to the costs of any proceedings, those costs must be determined in accordance with Appendices B and C to this Part and paragraphs (2) to (4) of this rule.

(2) The “value” of the claim, whether or not the claim is one for a specified or unspecified or unspecified sum, coupled with a claim for other remedies is to be decided in the case of the claimant or defendant –

- (a) by the amount agreed or ordered to be paid; or if the claim is for damages and the claim form does not specify an amount that is claimed, such sum as may be agreed between the party entitled to, and the party liable to, such costs or, if not agreed, a sum stipulated by the court as the value of the claim; or

(b) if the claim is not for a monetary sum it is to be treated as a claim for $50,000 unless the court makes an order under Rule 65.6(1)(a).

(3) The general rule is that the amount of costs to be paid is to be calculated in accordance with the percentages specified in column 3 of Appendix B against the appropriate value.

(4) The court may –

(a) award a proportion only of such sum having taken into account the matters set out in rule 64.6(4) and (5); and

(b) order a party to pay costs –

(i) from or to a certain date; or

(ii) relating only to a certain distinct part of the proceedings, in which case it must specify the proportion of the fixed costs which is to be paid by the party liable to pay such costs and in so doing may take into account the table set out in Appendix C.

Applications to determine value of claim for purpose of prescribed costs

65.6 (1) A party may apply to the court at any time before trial –

(a) to determine the value to be placed on a case which has no monetary value; or

(b) where the likely value is known, to direct that the prescribed costs to be calculated on the basis of some higher or lower value.

(2) If an application is made for costs to be prescribed at a higher level, rules 65.8(4)(c) and 65.9 apply.

What is included in prescribed costs

65.7 (1) Prescribed costs include all work that is required to prepare the proceedings for trial including, in particular, the costs involved in –

(a) instructing any expert;

(b) considering and disclosing any report made by the expert;

(c) arranging the expert witness' attendance at trial; and

(d) attendance and advocacy at the trial including attendance at any case management conference or pre-trial review.

(2) Prescribed costs exclude –

- (a) expert's fees for preparing a report and attending any conference, hearing or trial;
- (b) costs incurred in enforcing any order (which are generally fixed in accordance with rule 65.4 but may, in certain cases, be assessed in accordance with rule 65.12);
- (c) the cost of obtaining a daily transcript of the evidence if the trial judge certifies this as a reasonable disbursement in all the circumstances of the case; and
- (d) the making or opposing of any application except at a case management conference or pre-trial review.

Budgeted costs

65.8 (1) A party may apply to the court to set a costs budget for the proceedings.

(2) An application for a costs budget must be made at or before the first case management conference.

(3) The application may be made by either or both parties but an order setting a costs budget may not be made by consent unless all relevant parties are bodies corporate.

(4) An application for a costs budget must be accompanied by –

- (a) a statement of the amount that the party seeking the order wishes to be set as the costs budget;
- (b) a statement showing how the budget has been calculated and setting out in particular –
 - (i) a breakdown of the costs incurred to date;
 - (ii) the anticipated amount of any expert witness fees and whether or not such fees are included in the budget;
 - (iii) the disbursements other than expert fees that are included in the budget;
 - (iv) the fees that are anticipated to be paid to any legal practitioner other than the legal

- practitioner on record for advocacy (including advocacy by a Queen’s Counsel, a State Counsel or more than one counsel), advising or settling any document;
 - (v) the hourly rate charged by the legal practitioner (or other basis of charging);
 - (vi) a statement of the number of hours of preparation time (including attendances upon the party, any witness and any other party to the proceedings) that the legal practitioner for the party making the application has already spent and anticipates will be required to bring the proceedings to trial; and
 - (vii) what procedural steps or applications are or are not included in the budget; and
- (c) the written consent from the client in accordance with rule 65.9.

(5) A party may apply to vary the terms of an order made under this rule at any time prior to the commencement of the trial but no order may be made increasing the amount of the budgeted costs unless the court is satisfied that there has been a change of circumstances which became known after the order was made.

Client’s consent to application for budgeted costs

65.9 (1) The court may not make an order for budgeted costs unless –

- (a) the court satisfies itself that each party fully understands the consequences of the order that is being sought as to –
 - (i) the party’s liability for costs to the party’s own legal practitioner, whether the party obtains an order for costs against any other party or not;
 - (ii) the party’s liability to pay costs in the budgeted sum to the other party if that other party obtains an order for costs against the party; and
 - (iii) what the party’s liability might be under paragraphs (i) and (ii) if rule 65.5 applied;
- (b) the consent under sub-paragraph (c) is in a separate document which –
 - (i) deals only with the question of budgeted costs;
 - (ii) gives an estimate of the total costs of the proceedings as between the legal practitioner and the client;

- (iii) is signed by the party in person;
 - (iv) states the legal practitioner's estimate of what the prescribed costs appropriate to the proceedings would be; and
 - (v) sets out the basis of that estimate including the amount of any hourly charge;
- (c) there has been filed a document recording the express consent of the party in person to the application and to any order made as a consequence of the application; and
- (d) the party seeking the order is present in person when the application is made except where–
- (i) that party is a body corporate; or
 - (ii) for some exceptional reason this is impracticable.

(2) The written consent of the client must not be disclosed to the other party.

(3) This rule also applies to any other party personally who consents to or does not oppose an order for a costs budget.

What is included in costs budget

65.10 Unless the costs budget approved by the court specifies otherwise, rule 65.7 applies to budgeted costs as it does to prescribed costs.

Assessed costs – procedural applications

65.11(1) On determining any application except at a case management conference, pre-trial review or the trial, the court must –

- (a) decide which party, if any, should pay the costs of that application;
- (b) assess the amount of such costs; and
- (c) direct when such costs are to be paid.

(2) In deciding which party, if any, should pay the costs of the application the general rule is that the unsuccessful party must pay the costs of the successful party.

(3) The court must take into account all the circumstances including the factors set out in rule

64.6(6) but where the application is –

- (a) an application to amend a statement of case;
- (b) an application to extend the time specified for doing any act under these Rules or an order or direction of the court;
- (c) an application for relief under rule 26.8 (relief from sanctions); or
- (d) one that could reasonably have been made at a case management conference or pre-trial review;

the court must order the applicant to pay the costs of the respondent unless there are special circumstances.

(4) In assessing the amount of costs to be paid by any party the court must take into account any representations as to the time that was reasonably spent in making the application and preparing for and attending the hearing and must allow such sum as it considers fair and reasonable.

(5) A party seeking assessed costs must supply to the court and to all other parties a brief statement showing –

- (a) any counsel's fees incurred;
- (b) how that party's legal representative's costs are calculated; and
- (c) the disbursements incurred.

(6) The statement under paragraph (5) must comply with any relevant practice direction.

(7) The costs allowed under this rule may not exceed one tenth of the amount of the prescribed costs appropriate to the claim unless the court considers that there are special circumstances of the case justifying a higher amount.

Assessed costs – general

65.12(1) This rule applies where costs fall to be assessed in relation to any matter or proceedings, or part of a matter or proceedings, other than a procedural application.

(2) If the assessment relates to part of court proceedings it must be carried out by the judge, master or registrar hearing the proceedings.

(3) If the 62

does not fall to be carried out at the hearing of any proceedings then the person entitled to the costs must apply to a master or the registrar for directions as to how the assessment is to be carried out.

(4) The application must be accompanied by a bill or other document showing the sum in which the court is being asked to assess the costs and how such sum was calculated.

(5) On hearing any such application the master or registrar must either –

(a) assess the costs if there is sufficient material available to do so; or

(b) fix a date, time and place for the assessment to take place.

(6) The master or registrar may direct that the party against whom the bill is assessed pay the costs of the party whose bill is being assessed and, if so, must assess such costs and add them to the costs ordered to be paid.

Costs of Proceedings in Court of Appeal

65.13(1) The general rule is that the costs of any appeal must be determined in accordance with rules 65.5, 65.6 and 65.7 and Appendix B but the costs must be limited to two thirds of the amount that would otherwise be allowed.

(2) The Court of Appeal may, if the circumstances of the appeal or the justice of the case require, depart from the general rule and, in such a case, it may -

(a) make an order for budgeted costs whether on an application made in accordance with rules 65.8 and 65.9 or otherwise; or

(b) make such other order as it sees fit.

Costs capping orders – General

65.14 (1) A costs capping order is an order limiting the amount of future costs (including disbursements) which a party may recover pursuant to an order for costs subsequently made.

(2) In this Rule, “future costs” means costs incurred in respect of work done after the date of the costs capping order but excluding the amount of any additional liability.

(3) A cost capping order may be in respect of –

- (a) the whole litigation; or
- (b) any issues which are ordered to be tried separately.

(4) The court may at any stage of proceedings make a costs capping order against all of any of the parties, if –

- (a) it is in the interests of justice to do so;
- (b) there is a substantial risk that without such an order costs will be disproportionately incurred; and
- (c) it is not satisfied that the risk in sub-paragraph (b) can be adequately controlled by –
 - (i) case management directions or orders made under Part 26; and
 - (ii) detailed assessment of costs.

(5) In considering whether to exercise its discretion under this Rule, the court will consider all the circumstances of the case, including –

- (a) whether there is a substantial imbalance between the financial position of the parties;
- (b) whether the costs of determining the amount of the cap are likely to be proportionate to the overall costs of the litigation;
- (c) the stage which have been incurred to date and the future costs.

(6) A costs capping order, once made, will limit the costs recoverable by the party subject to the order unless a party successfully applies to vary the order. No such variation will be made unless –

- (a) there has been a material and substantial change of circumstances since the date when the order was made; or
- (b) there is some other compelling reason why a variation should be made.

Application for a costs capping order

65.15(1) An application for a costs capping order must be made on notice in accordance with Part 11.

(2) The application must –

(a) set out –

- (i) whether the costs capping order is in respect of the whole of the litigation or a particular issue which is ordered to be tried separately; and
- (ii) why a costs capping order should be made; and

(b) be accompanied by an estimate of cost setting out –

- (i) the costs (and disbursements) incurred by the applicant to date; and
- (ii) the costs (and disbursements) which the applicant is likely to incur in the future conduct of the proceedings.

(3) The court may give directions for the determination of the application and such directions may-

(a) direct any party to the proceedings –

- (i) to file a schedule of costs;
- (ii) to file written submissions on all or any part of the issues arising;

(b) fix the date and time estimate of the hearing of the application;

(c) include any further directions as the court sees fit.

Defendant's statement of case

69.3 A defendant (or in the case of a counterclaim, the claimant) who alleges that –

- (a) in so far as the words complained of consist of statements of facts, they are true in substance and in fact; and

Statement in open court

69.6 If a defamation claim is settled before trial either party may apply to a judge in chambers for leave to make a statement in open court in terms agreed by the judge.

Requests for Information

69.7 In a defamation claim where the defendant states that the words or matters complained of –

- (b) were published on a privileged occasion;

the claimant may not make a request for information under Part 34 as to the defendant's sources of information or grounds of belief.

Evidence to mitigate damages

Scope of this Part

69B.1 This Part regulates the procedure of the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court sitting in the jurisdiction of the Virgin Islands as established by the provisions of Part 69A of these Rules. Except as provided by this Part these Rules and their practice directions apply to the procedure of the Commercial Division as they otherwise apply within the jurisdiction.

Allocation to the Commercial List

69B.2 (1) Except where the Chief Justice otherwise directs, only claims and applications required to be commenced in the Registry of the High Court of the Virgin Islands (“the Registry”) may be placed on the commercial list.

- (2) In addition to the procedure provided in rule 69A.4, the Registry may place on the commercial list any claim or application of its own motion where it appears that the claim or application is a qualifying claim within the meaning of rule 69A.1 (2) and (3) and that it is appropriate for the claim to be placed on the commercial list.
- (3) Any party to a claim or application placed on the commercial list pursuant to paragraph (2) may apply, in the case of a claim proceeding by way of claim form, at any time before the close of pleadings and in the case of a claim proceeding by way of originating application, at any time before the close of evidence, for the claim or application to be transferred from the commercial list to another list.
- (4) An application under paragraph (3) shall be made by way of ordinary application to the Commercial Court Judge.

Headings of documents

69B.3 The claim form and every document required to be filed at court in a commercial claim proceeding or intended to proceed in the Commercial Division shall be headed:

“In the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court In the High Court of Justice
Virgin Islands Commercial Division

Claim No: BVIHC (COM) [] of 20[]”;

and rule 8.1(4) shall be modified accordingly.

Disapplications and modifications having general effect in commercial matters

69B.4 (1) Rule 20.1(3) shall not apply in a commercial matter and an application to change a statement of case may be made at any time and whether or not the application is necessitated by a change in circumstances.

- (2) Rule 22.1 shall apply in a commercial matter to partnerships carrying on business without, as well as within the jurisdiction and the remainder of rule 22.1 (with the exception of rule 22.1(7)) shall apply accordingly in a commercial matter.
- (3) Rule 22.2 shall apply in a commercial matter to persons carrying on business without, as well as within the jurisdiction.
- (4) Rule 22.3 shall not apply in a commercial matter and bodies corporate must be represented by a legal practitioner in all commercial matters.
- (5) Where in a commercial matter a party responds to a request for information from another party made under rule 34 or complies with any order that it respond to a request for information made under rule 34, each separate response must be preceded by the exact wording of the request in respect of which that response is supplied.

Ordinary applications in commercial matters

69B.5 (1) All applications in a commercial matter shall be made to and heard by the Commercial Court Judge.

- (2) Part 11 (as modified by this Part) applies to applications (“ordinary applications”) made before, during or after a commercial matter including a commercial matter commenced by way of originating application, but shall not apply to the evidence given on or to the conduct of an originating application itself, which shall be governed by rules 69B.6(1) to (4).
- (3) Rule 11.3 shall not apply in a commercial matter.
- (4) In the case of ordinary applications made on notice, the Registry’s Commercial Division Case Management Unit (“the Unit”) will allocate a date for the hearing when the application is issued. If that date or the time available for the hearing of the application is unsuitable for any reason the legal practitioners for the parties must within 7 days after the application has been served arrange for duly authorised individuals to attend the Unit in person or contact the Unit by telephone to arrange an alternative date and time for hearing of the application.

- (5) Ordinary applications estimated to require a hearing of less than two hours are classed as short applications. Ordinary applications estimated to require a hearing of more than two hours are classed as special applications.
- (6) Rule 11.8(3) shall not apply in a commercial matter. Evidence in support of every ordinary application must be filed and served together with the application except in case of urgency or where circumstances do not permit (in which case the evidence should be filed and served as soon as reasonably practicable) or in cases where the application does not turn on any question of fact.
- (7) Rule 11.9 shall not apply in a commercial matter. Unless the application is made in a case where (apart from rule 11.9) these Rules require that evidence be given by affidavit, evidence in support of or in response to an ordinary application should be given by way of witness statement.
- (8) Rule 30.3(2) shall apply to a witness statement made in an ordinary application in a commercial matter as if the words 'witness statement' were substituted for the word 'affidavit' where it occurs in rule 30.3(2);
- (9) Rules 29.5(1)(d) and (e) shall not apply in a commercial matter. A witness statement made in an ordinary application in a commercial matter must include a statement by its maker that that person believes that the statements of fact it contains are true to the best of the maker's knowledge, information or belief and if the witness statement contains matters of information or belief the witness statement must include a statement by its maker that to the best of his knowledge, information or belief such information is accurate or that such belief is well founded.
- (10) Evidence in answer to an ordinary application must be served within 14 days of service of the evidence in support and evidence in reply within 7 days after service of evidence in answer. This timetable may be extended or abridged by agreement in writing between the parties. If an extension is agreed between the parties which are likely to affect the date of the hearing, the parties must inform the Unit forthwith and arrange for the hearing to be re-listed.

- (11) In an appropriate case the court may abridge the timetable prescribed by paragraph (10), either of its own motion or upon application made, notwithstanding any agreement between the parties to the contrary.
- (12) If the court or the Unit or any party to a special application is of the view that a case management conference (“CMC”) or pre-hearing review (“PHR”) would enable the court to dispose of the special application more efficiently, then upon its own motion or at the suggestion of the Unit or on the application of any party the court may direct that a CMC or, as the case may be, a PHR be held.
- (13) If the court directs a CMC under paragraph (12), it shall direct that the CMC be held on the first available date not earlier than 7 days after making the direction and rule 69B.7 (7) and (8) shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary or appropriate.
- (14) If the court directs a PHR under paragraph (12), it shall direct the PHR to be held not later than 14 days before the date fixed for the hearing of the application and rule 69B.8 (1) and (2) shall apply with such modifications as may be necessary or appropriate.

Originating applications

69B.6 (1) If a commercial matter is commenced by way of originating application pursuant to rule 13 of the Insolvency Rules, 2005 the evidence in support must be filed and served together with the originating application except in case of urgency or where circumstances do not permit (in which case the evidence should be filed as soon as reasonably practicable). Rule 69B.5

(4) applies in a commercial matter commenced by way of originating application.

- (2) All evidence given on an originating application shall be given by affidavit.
- (3) Evidence in answer to an originating application must be served within 21 days of service of the originating application and any evidence in reply within 14 days of service of the evidence in answer. This timetable may be extended or abridged by agreement in writing between the parties.
- (4) In an appropriate case the court may abridge the timetable set out in paragraph (3), either of its own motion or upon application made, notwithstanding any agreement between the parties to the contrary.

Case management conferences

- 69B.7 (1) Rules 27.3, 27.5 and 27.6 shall not apply in a commercial matter.
- (2) In a commercial matter proceeding by way of originating application, the applicant must, not later than 14 days after the last of the respondents to do so has served his evidence in answer, provide the Unit with an agreed written statement of the parties' best estimate of the length of the hearing of the originating application, or, if no agreement can be reached, then separate estimates by each party.
 - (3) In a commercial matter proceeding otherwise than by way of originating application, the claimant must, not later than 14 days after the last party to do so has served his defence, provide the Unit with an agreed written statement of the parties' best estimate of the length of the trial or, if no agreement can be reached, then separate estimates by each party.
 - (4) If, in a commercial matter proceeding by way of originating application, the parties' estimate, or the longest of the parties' estimates, of the length of the hearing is more than one full hearing day, the Unit will fix a CMC for the first available date after the date when the respondent is due to serve any evidence in answer.
 - (5) If, in a commercial matter proceeding otherwise than by way of originating application, the parties' estimate, or the longest of the parties' estimates of the length of trial is more than one full hearing day, the Unit will fix a CMC for the first available date six weeks after the last of all defendants intending to defend the claim has filed his defence.
 - (6) The claimant (or applicant) must three clear days before the date set for the CMC lodge with the Judicial Assistant to the Commercial Court Judge ("the Judicial Assistant") a case management bundle.
 - (7) At a CMC in a commercial matter proceeding otherwise than by way of originating application, in addition to any orders or directions given pursuant to the court's general powers of management conferred by rule 26.1, the court will ordinarily give directions as to
 - (a) the nature and extent of any disclosure to be given;
 - (b) whether and to what extent witness statements are required and whether in all the circumstances certain issues or factual matters can more conveniently and economically be dealt with by witness

- summaries (whether or not a party is or is not able to obtain a witness statement from the witness in question);
- (c) the nature of any expert evidence to be called and the identity of the respective parties' experts and the timetable for exchange of experts' reports;
 - (d) whether it is appropriate for evidence on one or more matters in issue to be given by a single expert pursuant to rules 32.9 and 32.11;
 - (e) whether the services of an interpreter will be necessary at trial;
 - (f) whether or not a pre-trial review should be held; and
 - (g) such other matters as appear appropriate.
- (8) Provided that he has sufficiently indicated to the other parties and to the court his intention to apply at the CMC, it is not necessary for a party to make an application under rule 28.5 for the disclosure of specific documents or under rule 32.6 for permission to call expert evidence.
- (9) At a CMC in a commercial matter proceeding by way of originating application, the court will ordinarily consider
- (a) whether points of claim and defence should be served;
 - (b) whether any disclosure should be given;
 - (c) whether any witness should attend for cross examination;
 - (d) whether any expert evidence is required and, if so, what directions are required for the taking of such expert evidence; and
 - (e) such other matters as appear appropriate.

Pre-trial review

69B.8 (1) Rule 38.5 shall not apply to a pre trial review ("PTR") in a commercial matter. If the court directs that a PTR is to be held in a commercial matter, the claimant or applicant must three clear days before the hearing of the PTR lodge with the Judicial Assistant a copy of the original case management bundle, updated by the inclusion of such subsequent material (only) as will enable the court to conduct an efficient and useful PTR, together with an agreed trial timetable.

- (2) The parties must attempt to agree in advance a trial timetable for inclusion in the updated case management bundle for use at a PTR. If agreement cannot be reached, then the parties must put in separate timetables.

- (3) If a PTR is held, the court will give directions as to the timetable to be followed at trial. Such timetable may (among other things) dispense with or limit opening or closing oral submissions.
- (4) If no PTR is held, the parties must agree and not later than two weeks before the trial is to commence lodge with the Judicial Assistant an agreed trial timetable or, if agreement cannot be reached, then separate trial timetables. The Judicial Assistant will as soon as convenient thereafter inform the parties what trial timetable the trial judge proposes to adopt. If any party is dissatisfied with the timetable proposed by the judge, then that party must apply to the Unit to fix a conference for the purpose of settling the trial timetable. If the judge decides that the party at whose instigation the conference was convened acted unreasonably in asking for it, then that party may be ordered to pay to the other parties their costs of attending the conference.
- (5) A party who elects not to call a witness in respect of whom a witness statement, witness summary or affidavit has been put in must notify all other parties of that decision immediately after it has been taken.

Trial bundles

69B.9 (1) Rule 39.1(5) shall not apply in commercial matters. Not later than six weeks before the date fixed for trial (which includes the trial of a contested originating application), the claimant or applicant must begin the process of agreeing with the other parties what documents should be included in the trial bundles. If any party objects to the judge reading any particular document before trial, that party must ensure that notice of objection is provided to the claimant or applicant for inclusion in the trial bundle. The completed trial bundles must be served on the other parties no later than two weeks before the date fixed for the commencement of the trial.

- (2) Not later than ten days before the start of the trial the claimant or applicant must lodge with the Judicial Assistant a full copy of the trial bundles.

Costs - general

69B.10 Rules 65.3 to 65.10 (inclusive) shall not apply in commercial matters.

Costs – ordinary applications

- 69B.11 (1) Rule 65.11(1) shall not apply in commercial matters.
- (2) The court will, after giving its decision on an ordinary application, determine, either forthwith or at a hearing fixed for the purpose,
- (a) which (if any) party should pay costs to another party; and
 - (b) how much in principle (taking into account the provisions of rule 64.6 and any other matter appearing to the court to be relevant in all the circumstances) of the costs of the party to be paid (“the receiving party”) are to be paid by the paying party.
- (3) The statement required to be provided by rule 65.11(5) must be provided to the court before the hearing in question and must (in addition to the information required by rule 65.11(5)) particularise the amount of time spent upon the application by the legal practitioner or his partners or employees, specifying, in each case,
- (a) the charge out rate of the relevant legal practitioner, partner or employee (and in the case of employees, identifying the positions held by them within the legal practitioner’s firm);
 - (b) the task or tasks undertaken by the respective legal practitioner, partner or employee; and
 - (c) the precise time spent upon each such task by the relevant practitioner, partner or employee.
- (4) If the hearing of an application has occupied the time of the court for one hearing day or less, the court will summarily assess the quantum of such costs forthwith after giving its determination under paragraph (2). In other cases the court may either fix a hearing for the assessment to be carried out by the Commercial Court Judge or may direct that the quantum be assessed by the Master (or such other officer of the court as may from time to time be charged with making such assessment).
- (5) Where after the hearing of an ordinary application the court orders one party to pay costs to another party, those costs shall, unless the court otherwise orders, be paid within 14 days of the making of the order or the final determination of any assessment, as the case may be.

Costs - trials

69B.12 (1) Rule 65.12 does not apply in commercial matters. After trial or earlier conclusion of the proceedings the court will (in the absence of agreement) determine

- (a) which (if any) party should pay costs to another party; and
 - (b) how much in principle (taking into account the provisions of rule 64.6 and any other matter appearing to the court to be relevant in all the circumstances to the incidence of costs in the proceedings) of the costs of the receiving party are to be paid by the paying party.
- (2) Having made its determination under paragraph (1), the court will direct that the costs be assessed upon the principles as so determined. The court may direct that the assessment be carried out by the Commercial Court Judge or may direct that they be assessed by the Master (or such other officer of the court as may from time to time be charged with making such assessment).
- (3) Unless the court otherwise orders, the costs payable by the paying party pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be paid within 14 days after final determination of the assessment made pursuant to paragraph (2).

Payment on account of costs

69B.13 (1) The court may, upon application by the receiving party, order the paying party to make a payment on account of costs to be paid by him upon assessment. Unless the court otherwise orders, the paying party is liable to make such payment on account within 14 days of being ordered to do so. If upon assessment the amount assessed as payable by the paying party is less than the amount paid by him on account, then the excess shall be a debt payable forthwith upon the making of the assessment by the receiving party to the paying party, together with interest at 5% per annum from the date upon which the payment on account was made until the date of repayment.

(2) A party intending to ask the court to make an order under paragraph (1) must provide to the court and serve on all parties affected an itemized schedule of its costs, such schedule to include the information specified in rule 69B.11 (3) (a) to (c).

Conduct of assessment

69B.14 When the court has directed pursuant to rule 69B.11(4) or rule 69B.12 (2) that costs be assessed, any party may apply to the Commercial Court Judge or Master or other officer charged with carrying out the assessment to have the quantum of such costs assessed. The Commercial Court Judge or Master or other such officer shall give directions for the conduct of such assessment.

(9) A claim in rem may not be brought against the Crown.

How to make Admiralty claim

70.4 (1) An Admiralty claim in rem is begun by a claim form in Form 25.

(2) An Admiralty claim in personam is begun by a claim form in Form 1.

(3) A limitation claim is begun by a claim form in Form 26.

(4) A claim in rem and a claim in personam may not be combined in the same claim form.

- Part 6 deals with the service of other documents.
- Part 8 deals with the issue of a claim form.

Service of claim form in rem

70.5 (1) Subject to paragraph (2), a claim form by which a claim in rem is begun must be served on the property against which the claim is brought, except where the property –

- (a) has been sold by the marshal, in which case the claim form may not be served on that property but a sealed copy of it must be filed and the claim is deemed to have been duly served on the day on which the copy was filed; and
- (b) is freight, in which case the claim form must be served on the cargo in respect of which the freight is payable or on the ship in which that cargo was carried.

(2) A claim form need not be served or filed as mentioned in paragraph (1) if it is deemed to have been duly served on the defendant by virtue of rule 5.19(2) or (3).

(3) If by virtue of this rule a claim form is required to be served on any property, the claimant may request service of the claim form to be effected by the marshal only if a warrant of arrest has been issued for service against the property or the property is under arrest.

(4) Where paragraph (3) applies the claimant must file a request in the appropriate practice form and lodge –

- (a) the claim form and a copy thereof; and
 - (b) an undertaking to pay on demand all expenses incurred by the marshal in respect of the service of the claim form;
- and thereupon the marshal must serve the claim form on the property described in the request.

(5) If a claim form is served on any property by the marshal, the person effecting service must endorse on the claim form the following particulars –

- (a) the day of the week and the date on which it was served;
- (b) the manner in which it was served;
- (c) the name and the address of the person effecting service;
- (d) the property on which it was served; and
- (e) where it was served;

and the endorsement is evidence of the facts stated.

(6) If the –

- (a) claimant; or
- (b) claimant’s legal practitioner;

in a claim in rem becomes aware that there is in force a caveat against arrest with respect to the property against which the proceedings are brought, that person must serve the claim form forthwith on the person at whose instance the caveat was entered.

(7) The general rule is that if a claim form by which a claim in rem is begun is amended after service under Part 20, the amended claim form must be served on any –

- (a) defendant who has acknowledged issue or service of the claim form; and
- (b) intervener.

(8) However, if no defendant has acknowledged issue or service of the claim form, it must be served or filed –

- (a) in accordance with paragraph (1); or
- (b) as the court otherwise directs.

(9) An application for a direction under paragraph (8) (b) may be made without notice but must be supported by evidence on affidavit.

Service on ships, etc. – how effected

70.6 (1) The general rule is that service of a warrant of arrest or claim form in proceedings in rem against a ship, freight or cargo is to be effected by –

- (b) on removing the warrant or claim form, leaving a copy of it affixed –
 - (i) (in the case of the warrant) in its place; or
 - (ii) (in the case of the claim form) on a sheltered, conspicuous part of the ship.

(2) However, service of a warrant of arrest or claim form in proceedings in rem against freight or cargo or both, if the cargo has been landed or transhipped, is to be effected –

- (a) by placing the warrant or claim form for a short time on the cargo and, on removing the warrant or claim form, leaving a copy of it on the cargo; or
- (b) if the cargo is in the custody of a person who will not permit access to it, by leaving a copy of the warrant or claim form with that person.

- (b) the facts out of which the claim arises took place within the waters or within the limits of a port of a Member State or Territory; or
- (c) a claim arising out of the same incident or series of incidents is proceeding in the court or has been heard and determined in the court.

(2) An application to serve a claim form out of the jurisdiction must be made in accordance with rule

7.5.

(3) In this rule –

“port” includes a place and a harbour.

Acknowledgment of service

70.8 A defendant to a claim form in rem which has not been served, or a defendant to a limitation claim who has not been served with the claim form, who desires to take part in the proceedings, may acknowledge the issue of the claim form by filing an acknowledgment of service substituting for the references to service of the claim form references to issue of the claim.

Warrant of arrest

70.9 (1) In a claim in rem the claimant or defendant who counterclaims may, after the issue of the claim form and subject to the provisions of this rule, issue a warrant in Form 27 for the arrest of the property against which the claim or counterclaim is brought.

(2) The party intending to issue the warrant must first cause a search to be made in the caveat book to see whether there is a caveat against arrest in force with respect to that property.

(3) The general rule is that a warrant of arrest may not be issued until the party intending to issue the same has filed an affidavit made by the party or its agent containing the following particulars –

(a) in every case –

(i) the nature of the claim or counterclaim and that it has not been satisfied;

(ii) if the claim arises in connection with a ship, the name of that ship;

(iii) the nature of the property to be arrested; and

(iv) if the property is a ship, the name of the ship and her port of registry;

(b) in the case of a claim against a ship under rule 70.2(c) to (g), (i) to (k), (m) to (p), (r) and (u)

(i) the name of the person who would be liable on the claim in a claim in personam;

- (ii) that the relevant person was when the cause of action arose the owner or charterer of, or in possession or in control of, the ship in connection with which the claim arose; and
 - (iii) that at the time of the issue of the claim form the relevant person was either the beneficial owner of all the shares in the ship in respect of which the warrant is required or (where appropriate) the charterer of it under a charter by demise;
- and
- (c) in the case of a claim for possession of a ship or for wages –
 - (i) the nationality of the ship in respect of which the warrant is required; and
 - (ii) that the notice (if any) required by paragraph (7) has been sent.
- (4) Where appropriate a copy of any notice sent to a consul under paragraph (7) must be exhibited to an affidavit required by paragraph (3).
- (5) The court may, however, give permission to issue the warrant notwithstanding that the affidavit does not contain all those particulars.
- (6) A warrant of arrest may not be issued without the permission of the court in the case of property whose beneficial ownership has, since the issue of the claim, changed as a result of a sale or disposal by the court.
- (7) The general rule is that a warrant of arrest may not be issued in a claim in rem against a foreign ship registered at a port of a State having a consulate in the jurisdiction, being a claim for possession of the ship or for wages, until notice that the proceedings has been begun has been sent to the consul or the court gives permission.
- (8) Issue of a warrant of arrest takes place upon its being sealed by the court office.

Caveat against arrest

70.10(1) Except in a case to which paragraph (2) applies, a person who wishes to prevent the arrest of any property must file a request in the appropriate practice form signed by that person or that person's legal practitioner undertaking –

- (a) to acknowledge issue or service (as may be appropriate) of the claim form in any claim that may be made against the property described in the request; and
 - (b) within 3 days after receiving notice that such a claim has been made, to give bail in that claim in a sum not exceeding an amount specified in the request or to pay the amount so specified into court.

 - (ii) undertaking to acknowledge issue or service (as may be appropriate) of the claim form in any claim that may be begun against the property described in the request;and on the filing of the request a caveat against the issue of a warrant to arrest the property described in the request must be entered in the caveat book.
- (4) The fact that there is a caveat against arrest in force does not prevent the issue of a warrant to arrest the property to which the caveat relates.
- (5) If any property with respect to which a caveat against arrest is in force is arrested in pursuance of a warrant of arrest, the party at whose instance the caveat was entered may apply to the court for an order discharging the warrant.
- (6) On the hearing of an application under paragraph (5), the court, unless it is satisfied that the party procuring the arrest of the property had a good and sufficient reason for so doing, may –

- has been lodged in the marshal's office.

(4) A warrant of arrest may not be executed if the party at whose instance it was issued lodges a written request to that effect with the marshal.

(5) The general rule is that a warrant of arrest must be served on the property against which it is issued.

(6) However, a warrant of arrest issued against freight may be executed by serving the warrant on the cargo in respect of which the freight is payable or on the ship in which that cargo was carried or on both of them.

(7) Within 7 days after the service of a warrant of arrest, the warrant must be filed.

- (a) at the time of the issue of the release the property is under arrest in one or more other proceedings; or
 - (b) the court so orders.
- (3) A release may be issued at the instance of any party to the claim in which the warrant of arrest was issued if –
- (a) the court so orders; or
 - (b) subject to paragraph (2), if all the other parties, except a defendant who has not acknowledged issue or service of the claim form, consent.
- (4) Before a release is issued, the party applying for its issue must, unless paragraph (2)(a) applies, give notice to any person at whose instance a subsisting caveat against release has been entered, or to that person’s legal practitioner, requiring the caveat to be withdrawn.

property or those proceeds;
must file a request in the appropriate practice form.

- (2) On the filing of a request under paragraph (1) the court office must enter a caveat in the caveat book.
- (3) If the release of any property under arrest is delayed by the entry of a caveat under this rule, any person having an interest in that property may apply to the court for an order requiring the person who procured the entry of the caveat to pay to the applicant damages in respect of the loss suffered by the applicant by reason of the delay.
- (4) On hearing an application under paragraph (3) the court, unless it is satisfied that the person procuring the entry of the caveat had a good and sufficient reason for so doing, may make an order accordingly.
- (5) If the court makes an order under paragraph (4), it must decide who should pay the costs of the application and assess the costs in accordance with rule 65.11.

- (7) If a corporation is a surety to a bail bond given on behalf of a party, no affidavit need be made under paragraph (6) on behalf of the corporation unless the opposite party requires it, but where such an affidavit is required it must be made by a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the corporation.

70.31(1) The powers under rules 33.7 to 33.16 extend to the making of an order authorising the examination of a witness or person on oath before a judge sitting in court as if for the trial of the claim.

(2) In proceedings in which preliminary acts fall to be filed under rule 70.19, an order must not be made authorising any examination of a witness before the preliminary acts have been filed unless for special reasons the court otherwise orders.

(3) Unless the court otherwise directs, affidavits made for the purpose of rules 70.20(5), 70.22(3) and 70.36(2) may contain statements of information and belief provided that the sources and grounds are given.

Proceedings for apportionment of salvage

70.32(1) Proceedings for the apportionment of salvage the aggregate amount of which has already been ascertained must be commenced by a fixed date claim.

(2) The claimant need not file or serve a statement of claim but must file an affidavit in support of the claim.

Applications in proceedings in rem

- (2) Notice of an application, except an application for judgment in default, must be served on all caveators together with copies of the affidavits, if any, in support of the application 7 clear days at least before the hearing, unless the court gives permission to the contrary.

Limitation proceedings: parties

- 70.34 (1) In a limitation claim the person seeking relief is to be the claimant and must be named in the claim by name and not described merely as the owner of, or as bearing some other relation to, a particular ship or other property.
- (2) The claimant must make one of the persons with claims against it in respect of the casualty to which the proceedings relates a defendant to the proceedings and may also make any or all of the others defendants.
- (3) At least one of the defendants to the proceedings must be named in the claim by name but the other defendants may be described generally and not named by their names.
- (4) The claim form must be served on one or more of the defendants who are named by their names therein and need not be served on any other defendant.
- (5) In this rule and rules 70.36, 70.37 and 70.38, “name” includes a firm name or the name under which a person carries on business.
- (6) If any person with a claim against the claimant in respect of the casualty to which the proceedings relates is described for the purposes of the claim –
- (a) merely as the owner of; or

(b) as bearing some other relation to;
a ship or other property, that person may be so described as defendant in the claim and, if so described, is deemed for the purposes of the rules mentioned in paragraph (5) to have been named in the claim by name.

Limitation proceedings: payments into court

70.35(1) The claimant may constitute a limitation fund by paying into court the Eastern Caribbean (or in the case of the Virgin Islands, the United States) dollar equivalent of the number of special drawing rights to which the claimant claims to be entitled to limit its liability under the Act together with interest thereon from the date of the occurrence giving rise to its liability to the date of payment into court.

(2) If the claimant does not know the appropriate equivalent of the said number of special drawing rights on the date of payment into court, it may calculate the same on the basis of the latest available published Eastern Caribbean or United States (as the case may be) dollar equivalent of a special drawing right as fixed by the International Monetary Fund.

(3) In the event of the appropriate dollar equivalent of a special drawing right on the date of payment into court being different from that used under paragraph (2), the claimant may –

(a) make up any deficiency by making a further payment into court which, if made within 14 days after the payment into court under paragraph (1), is to be treated, except for the purposes of the Rules relating to the accrual of interest on money paid into court, as if it had been made on the date of that payment into court; or

(b) apply to the court for payment out of any excess amount (together with any interest accrued thereon) paid into court under paragraph (1).

(4) An application under paragraph (3)(b) may be made without notice.

(5) The application must be supported by evidence on affidavit proving the appropriate dollar equivalent of the appropriate number of special drawing rights on the date of payment into court.

- (6) On making any payment into court under this rule, the claimant must give notice thereof in writing to every defendant, specifying the –
- (a) date of payment in;
 - (b) amount paid in;
 - (c) amount of interest included therein;
 - (d) rate of such interest; and
 - (e) period to which such interest relates.
- (7) The claimant must also give notice to every defendant of any excess amount (and any interest thereon) paid out to the claimant under paragraph (3)(b).

Application for decree or directions in limitation proceedings

70.36(1) The claimant must within 7 days after the –

- (a) acknowledgment of issue or service of the claim by one of the defendants identified by name; or
 - (b) time limited for entering an acknowledgment of service if none of the defendants acknowledges issue or service;
- apply to the court for a decree limiting liability or, in default of such a decree, for directions as to the future proceedings in the claim.

(2) The application must be supported by an affidavit –

- (a) verifying the claimant's case in the proceedings;
 - (b) proving service of the claim on at least one of the defendants identified by name if no such defendant has acknowledged service;
- and
- (c) stating –
 - (i) the names of all the persons who, to the knowledge of the claimant, have claims against the claimant in respect of the casualty to which the proceedings relates, not being defendants to the claim who are identified in the claim form by their names; and
 - (ii) the address of each of those persons if known to the claimant.

- (3) The application and every affidavit in support must be served on every defendant who has acknowledged issue or service of the claim at least 4 days before the hearing of the application.
- (4) Any defendant who –
- (a) disputes the claimant’s claim to limit his liability; or
 - (b) alleges inability to decide whether to dispute that claim;
- must, within 14 days of the service of the summons and any affidavit in support upon that defendant, serve upon the claimant an affidavit stating –
- (i) the grounds upon which the defendant relies to dispute the claimant’s claim to limit his liability; or
 - (ii) such facts and matters as could justify the court in giving a direction under paragraph (7) of this rule.
- (5) The claimant may, within 7 days of service upon it of any affidavit under paragraph (4), serve such further affidavit evidence as it may wish upon any defendant who has served an affidavit under paragraph (4) of this rule.
- (6) If on the hearing of the application it appears to the court that the claimant’s claim to limit its liability is not disputed, the court must make an order limiting the claimant’s liability to a specified amount.
- (7) If on the hearing of the application the court is satisfied that any defendant has not sufficient information to enable the defendant to decide whether to dispute the claimant’s claim to limit its liability, the court may, on such terms as seem just –
- (a) give such directions as appear to be appropriate to enable the defendant to obtain such information; and
 - (b) adjourn the hearing to a specified date time and place.
- (8) Any defendant who thereafter disputes the claimant’s claim to limit its liability must –
- (a) file an affidavit stating the grounds upon which the defendant relies; and
 - (b) serve the affidavit on the claimant at least 7 clear days before the adjourned hearing of the application.

- (9) If on the hearing or the adjourned hearing of the application, the court does not make a decree limiting the claimant's liability, the court must proceed to deal with the application as a case management conference.
- (10) Any defendant who, after the court has given directions under paragraph (7) or (9), ceases to dispute the claimant's right to limit its liability must –
- (a) forthwith file a notice to that effect; and
 - (b) serve a copy on the claimant and on any other defendant who has acknowledged issue or service of the claim.
- (11) If every defendant who disputes the claimant's right to limit its liability serves a notice on the claimant under paragraph (10), the claimant may apply to the court for an order limiting its liability; and paragraphs (3) and (6) apply to such an application.

Limitation proceedings: proceedings under decree

70.37(1) If –

- (a) the only defendants in a limitation proceedings are those named in the claim form by their names; and
 - (b) all the persons so named have either been served with the claim form or acknowledged the issue thereof; any order in the claim limiting the claimant's liability –
 - (i) need not be advertised; but
 - (ii) operates only to protect the claimant in respect of claims by the persons so named or persons claiming through or under them.
- (2) In any case not falling within paragraph (1), any order in the claim limiting the claimant's liability must –
- (a) be advertised by the claimant in such manner and within such time as may be provided by the order;
 - (b) fix a time within which persons with claims against the claimant in respect of the casualty to which the proceedings relates may file their claims, and, in cases to which rule 70.38 applies, apply to set the order aside.
- (3) The advertisement required under paragraph (2) (a) must, unless for special reasons the court otherwise directs, be a single advertisement in each of 3 newspapers specified in the order –

- (a) identifying the claim, the casualty and the relation of the claimant thereto (whether as owner of a ship involved in the casualty or otherwise);
- (b) stating that the order has been made; and
- (c) specifying the –

(6) After the expiration of the time allowed under paragraph (5), no claim may be filed or application made to set aside the order except with the permission of the court.

- (7) Save as aforesaid, on the making of any order limiting the claimant’s liability arising out of a casualty to which the proceedings relate the court may –
- (a) distribute the limitation fund; and
 - (b) stay any proceedings relating to any claim arising out of that occurrence which is pending against the claimant.

Limitation proceedings: proceedings to set aside decree

70.38(1) If an order limiting the claimant’s liability fixes a time in accordance with rule 70.37(2), any person with a claim against the claimant in respect of the casualty to which the proceedings relates who –

- (a) was not named by name in the claim as a defendant to the proceedings; or
- (b) if so named –
 - (i) was not served with; or
 - (ii) has not acknowledged the issue of;

the claim form, may, within that time, after acknowledging issue of the claim, apply for the order to be set aside.

- (2) The application must be supported by an affidavit or affidavits showing that the defendant in question has –
 - (a) a bona fide claim against the claimant in respect of the casualty in question; and
 - (b) sufficient prima facie grounds for the contention that the claimant is not entitled to the relief given it by the decree.

- (3) At least 7 clear days before the hearing of the application, the application and every affidavit in support thereof must be served on the claimant and any defendant who has acknowledged issue or service of the claim.

- (4) On the hearing of the summons the court, if satisfied that the defendant in question has a bona fide claim against the claimant and sufficient prima facie grounds for the contention that the claimant is not entitled to the relief given to the claimant by the decree, must set the decree aside and give directions as if the hearing were a case management conference.
