NOTES FOR DEFENDANT (FIXED DATE CLAIM)

The claimant is seeking an order from the court as set out in the claim form on the basis of the facts or evidence set out in the statement of claim or affidavit served with it. The claimant will not be entitled to enter judgment against you without a hearing.

You may:

A. Admit the claim

If so, you should complete and return the form of acknowledgment of service to the court office within 14/28 eight days stating this. You may attend the first hearing if you wish to do so.

B. Dispute the claim

If so, you should complete and return the form of acknowledgment of service as under A. You should also file at the court office and serve on the claimant's legal practitioner (or the claimant if the claimant has no legal practitioner):

- (a) a defence if the claim form was accompanied by the claimant's statement of claim, OR
- (b) an affidavit in answer if the claim form is accompanied by an affidavit sworn by or on behalf of the claimant within 28/42 days of the day on which the claim form was served on you. Your defence or affidavit must set out briefly ALL the facts on which you will rely to dispute the claim made against you.

You should also attend the first hearing. If you do not the judge may deal with the claim in your absence.

C. Make a claim against the claimant

If so, you should complete and return the form of acknowledgment of service as under A. You must file a statement of claim (a counterclaim) setting out full details of what you claim against the claimant and the facts on which you will rely. This must be done within 28/42 days of the date on which the claim form was served on you. The statement of claim should set out ALL the facts on which you rely in disputing any part of the claimant's claim against you.

You should also attend the first hearing. If you do not the judge may deal with the claim in your absence.
