

EASTERN CARIBBEAN SUPREME COURT
SUPREME COURT ORDER
CHAPTER 2.01
REVISED LAWS OF SAINT LUCIA, 2001

BY VIRTUE and in exercise of the powers vested in me by Section 8(5) of the Supreme Court Order, Chap. 2.01, Revised laws of Saint Lucia, 2001, I, Honourable Janice M. Pereira, Chief Justice do hereby appoint Honourable Mr. Justice Humphrey Stollmeyer as Chairman and member of a tribunal to investigate whether Her Ladyship, the Hon. Justice Ianthea Leigertwood-Octave ought to be removed from office for inability to discharge the functions of the office of High Court Judge of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court by repeated long and persistent failure in the period from conclusion of trials between 2006 to 7th December 2012 to deliver written reasons/judgments in matters over which the Judge has presided, within a reasonable time or at all including (a) matters in which written reasons/judgments are and remain outstanding and/or, (b) matters in which written reasons/judgments have been delivered but after significant delays from the date of the conclusion of the trials ranging, in some cases for periods in excess of more than one (1) year to as much as seven (7) years or for misbehaviour by way of such dereliction of duty as to bring the administration of justice of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court into disrepute, that is to say, having regard altogether to (a) the said repeated long and persistent failure in the period from conclusion of trials between 2006 to 7th December 2012 to deliver the said judgments and/or, (b) the Judge's said failure, notwithstanding being administratively de-rostered by the Chief Justice as a sitting Judge in order to clear the backlog of the said unwritten judgments and/or (c) the specific concerns and complaints in respect of the said failure made by or on behalf of litigants to the Judge, Registrars and the Office of Chief Justice and/or (d) in failing to co-operate with remedial efforts made by or under the direction of the Office of Chief Justice including, in many cases, failure to respond to that Office's inquiries in respect of the said failure generally and, in respect of the said specific concerns and complaints by or on behalf of litigants and brought to the attention of the Judge, to Registrars and to the Chief Justice and to report to the Honourable Chief Justice and recommend whether the question of removal of Her Ladyship, the Hon. Justice Ianthea Leigertwood-Octave should be referred by Her Majesty to the Judicial Committee.

GIVEN under my hand and the seal of
