SAINT LUCIA

STATUTORY INSTRUMENT, 2019, No. 129

[16th September, 2019]

In exercise of the powers conferred under section 17 of the Supreme Court Order, Cap. 2.01; the Chief Justice and two other Judges of the Supreme Court make the following Rules —

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (Sentencing Guidelines) Rules, 2019.

(2) These Rules come into force on the 1st day of October, 2019.

Interpretation

2. In these Rules —

“Court” means the Magistrates’ Court, the High Court and the Court of Appeal of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court;

“Court’s website” means the website of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court;

“Grid” means the grid in a sentencing guideline at stage 3 of step 1;

“Judge” includes any judicial officer of the Court;

“Sentencing Advisory Committee” means the committee appointed under rule 9.

Application of Rules

3. These Rules apply to all criminal proceedings conducted in the Court for which sentencing guidelines have been issued.

(Sentencing Guidelines) Rules*

Sentencing guidelines

4.—(1) The Chief Justice and two other judges of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court shall issue a sentencing guideline to outline the approach to be taken when a sentence is being determined for an offence.

(2) A sentencing guideline issued for an offence must be —

- (a) published in the Gazette;
- (b) displayed and made available at each Court office;
- (c) posted on the Court's website.

(3) In sentencing for an offence for which a guideline has been issued, the Court must apply the relevant sentencing guideline and sentence, unless to do so would not be in the interests of justice.

(4) If under sub-rule (3) the judge does not apply the sentencing guideline, clear reasons for not doing so must be given when passing sentence.

Purpose of sentencing guidelines

5. A sentencing guideline made under these Rules —

- (a) is not intended to achieve uniformity in sentences;
- (b) does not restrict judicial discretion;
- (c) will achieve a uniform approach to sentencing practice;
- (d) is intended to ensure greater consistency in sentences passed;
- (e) is intended to promote greater transparency; and
- (d) is intended to promote greater public confidence in the administration of criminal justice.

Application of sentencing guidelines by the Court

6.—(1) A sentencing guideline issued in relation to an offence must be applied in all criminal matters in the Court.

Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court
(Sentencing Guidelines) Rules

(2) The Court of Appeal, when considering an appeal from the lower court in relation to sentence, must apply any relevant sentencing guideline which is in force.

(3) A sentencing guideline must supersede guideline cases in respect of a particular offence.

(4) Prosecuting and defence counsel are under a duty to —

(a) be aware of any relevant guidelines;

(b) refer the Court to the sentencing guideline; and

(c) assist in the application of the sentencing guideline.

(5) If required to by the Court, prosecuting counsel must be in a position to make submissions on —

(a) where on the Grid the particular offence falls; and

(b) which aggravating or mitigating factors apply to the offence and the offender.

(6) Prosecuting counsel must not recommend a particular sentence to the Court but may make an application for an ancillary order, and submissions as to whether the criteria for such an order is met.

Practice directions and practice guides

7.—(1) The Chief Justice may issue practice directions and practice guides under these Rules to supplement these Rules and for the purpose of assisting parties in relation to the practice and procedure to be followed.

(2) A practice direction and practice guide must be applied in conjunction with these Rules.

(3) A practice direction and practice guide must be —

(a) published in the Gazette;

(b) displayed and made available at each Court office; and

(c) posted on the Court's website.

(4) The Court shall comply with a practice direction or practice guide unless there is good reason for not doing so.

(5) Where the provisions of a practice direction or a practice guide conflict with these Rules, these Rules prevail.

Application of Practice Directions

8.—(1) In determining sentence the Court shall have regard to any relevant principles stated in a practice direction issued under these Rules.

(2) The Court shall —

- (a) ensure that all sentences are clearly expressed;
- (b) state the reasons for its arrival at the final sentence imposed; and
- (c) be consistent with the relevant practice direction issued on sentencing principles.

(3) In constructing a sentence the Court must —

- (a) follow the steps identified in the relevant practice direction issued; and
- (b) identify these steps to the offender in public before the sentence is passed.

(4) In determining whether a suspended sentence is appropriate the Court must have regard to the principles as identified in the relevant practice direction issued in relation to the power of the Court to suspend a sentence.

(5) When sentencing a person below the age of eighteen years, the Court must have regard to the principles as identified in the relevant practice direction issued.

Sentencing Advisory Committee

9.—(1) The Sentencing Advisory Committee is responsible for the drafting of sentencing guidelines and must take into consideration —

- (a) the victims of crime, and
- (b) the impact on the community;

when determining an appropriate sentencing guideline for an offence.

(2) The Sentencing Advisory Committee shall comprise of a minimum of seven persons appointed by the Chief Justice of whom —

(a) a minimum of four must be judicial officers of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court; and

(b) a minimum of two must be non-judicial members;
with the Chief Justice as the ex officio President.

(3) A sentencing guideline prepared by the Sentencing Advisory Committee must be published in draft to allow for public consultation, prior to being issued.

(4) The Sentencing Advisory Committee may revise or amend a sentencing guideline and give reasons for doing so.

Made this 4th day of September, 2019.

DAME JANICE M. PEREIRA,
Chief Justice.

DAVIDSON KELVIN BAPTISTE,
Justice of Appeal.
